MINUTES OF THE
TWENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE
SOUTH CAROLINA STATE ASSOCIATION OF
ORIGINAL FREE WILL BAPTISTS

Meeting with the Beaver Creek Conference at Arcadia Free Will Baptist Church
Arcadia, South Carolina
November 16, 17, 1967

The twenty-fifth Annual Session of the South Carolina State Association of Free will Baptists convened at Arcadia Free Will Baptist Church, Arcadia, S. C., on November 16, 1967.

The meeting was opened by the singing of "Revive Us Again," led by Rev. Lloyd Gore with Mrs. Mary Reid at the piano, after which the body was led in prayer by the Rev. Floyd Seay of the Beaver Creek Association.

Devotions were brought by Rev. Nedo Eaddy, a senior student at Free Will Baptist Bible College and pastor of Brandon's Chapel Free Will Baptist Church in Bumpus Mills, Tennessee. The scripture text was II Timothy 4:1-5 and I Thessalonians 2:4 and dealt with "The Challenging Charge" to preach the Word, the one thing God has primarily for us to do. Preach it because men need it, regardless of whether or not they want it. Preach it in season and out of season. Preach it in times of difficulty as well as in times of refreshing. Preach it to please God and not men. If we preach it thusly, we can be sure God will bless.

The association was called to order and declared officially in session by the clerk.

The welcome was given by Pastor Donnie Seay of the host church on behalf of the Beaver Creek Conference. The response was given by Rev. Lloyd Gore, pastor of Little Bethel Church in Central Conference.

The moderator appointed the Committee on Committees, consisting of the following: Rev. L. H. Clayton, Rev. Owen Ganey, Rev. Paul Reid, Rev. Lloyd Gore, and Rev. William Sealy.

The body was informed that a reporter and photographer from the Spartanburg Herald would be in the sessions with us.

The moderator's message was then brought by Rev. Jack Millwood, who used as his text Isaiah 51:17-20. This in a sense is a picture of Free Will Baptists in South Carolina. Our theme is one of "Unity." (See Appendix I)

The following visitors were recognized: Rev. Roger Reeds, Rev. Nedo Eaddy, Mr. Samuel Johnson, all from Nashville, Tennessee, and Rev. John Stewart Craft from Ayden, N. C. and Brazil (Missionary appointee).

The following replacements were made on the Credentials Committee: Rev. Ronnie Lee Jones to replace Rev. Liston Williams from the Eastern Conference. Rev. Guy F. Owens to replace Mr. Allan W. Baxley from the South Carolina Conference.

The floor was opened for nominations for Assistant Moderator to replace Rev. Jack Millwood, who became Moderator when Rev. Robert Edwards moved out of the state. Rev. Paul Reid and Rev. Guy F. Owens were nominated. Motion to cease nominations was seconded and carried. Rev. Paul Reid was elected as Assistant Moderator.

Motion seconded and carried to adopt program as revised.

A question was raised concerning the standing board members privilege to vote though not authorized in the minutes or bylaws. The moderator informed the body he had told the Credentials Committee to allow them to register as delegates. There was no objection from the floor.

A revision of the Constitution and By-laws was passed out for the body's consideration. MSC to table these revisions for 24 hours.

The morning worship hour began by singing "Praise Him! Praise Him!" led by Rev. Earl Hendrix, pastor of the Inman Mission, after which Rev. Clarence Lambert of Southside Church, Darlington, led in prayer.

The moderator, Rev. Jack Millwood, introduced the speaker for the morning: Rev. Jerry Norris, pastor of St. John's Church in Patrick, S. C. Rev. Norris spoke from John 1:6-8 on "The God-Sent Men." Three things were noted in the text: First — "There was a man." Rev. Norris said he marvelled at God's grace in choosing men to carry His message, in spite of their imperfections and failures. Secondly — "Sent From God." Rom. 10:14,15; Acts 9:15. There are a lot today that are not God-sent or God-called. If your pastor is faithfully preaching the Word, you have no right to question whether he is called of God. Illustration: David, in sparing Saul's life said: "Who am I to touch the Lord's anointed?" Thirdly — Why Did He Come? To print bulletins? To carry out church business? No! He came to "bear witness of that Light" — to exalt Jesus. Three things to do to exalt Jesus: 1. Study — names, types, etc., of Christ. 2. Preach the Word — A recent Gallup poll regarding ministers revealed the following shocking figures: only 5% of those questioned believed in the creation story; only 24% believed in Bible miracles; only 26% believed in the Bible; only 25% believed in the Virgin birth; only 11% believed in hell; only 11% believed in heaven; only 18% believed in the resurrection; only 21% believed that God hears and answers prayers. These figures should shock us. Compromise begins in the schools, not the churches. Thank God for our school that is standing without compromise for the Divinely inspired Word of God, the Bible, and for the truths taught therein. We should pray much for our Free Will Baptist Bible College in Nashville, Tennessee. 3. Win the Lost to Jesus — R. A. Torrey said: "I'd rather win souls than be a king on a throne. My greatest ambition is to win souls."

The report of the Committee on Committees was adopted by motion (See Appendix II).

The body dismissed with prayer for lunch, which was provided by the host church.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 16, 1967

The afternoon session began with the singing of "Love Lifted Me," led by Rev. Donald Seay, from the Arcadia Church. Mrs. A. W. Lawter played the piano; Mrs. Mary Reid played the organ.

The afternoon devotional was brought by Rev. Bobby Bowers, pastor of First Church, Greenville, S. C., who took as his text Joshua 22:5 and spoke concerning "Tests of the Reality of Our Love for God." Five tests were given to prove the reality of this love:

- I. Attitude toward God — obedience
- II. Attitude toward Brethren — love
- III. Attitude toward Prayer
- IV. Attitude toward God's Son
- V. Attitude toward Advancement of God's Kingdom

Reverend Bowers closed the devotional in prayer

The Credentials Committee report was adopted by motion (See Appendix III).

Reverend Jack Paramore gave an encouraging and challenging report concerning our Free Will Baptist Bible College. MSC to receive the report as information.

The report and recommendations of the Board of Superannuation were given by Rev. William Sealy. MSC to receive the report. (See Appendix IV).

Fred Kirby for this body to grant permission for Promotional Secretary to attend the National Promotional Secretaries' Meeting in Nashville. Motion made and seconded. Discussion ensued. After discussion, motion made and seconded that since only one church is supporting the work, that we send the Promotional Secretary when his own church begins supporting the work. Motion made and seconded. Discussion ensued. After discussion, MSC to table until Friday this report.

Rev. Roger Reeds, National Sunday School Director, gave a report of our National Sunday School work. The following were some of the important points he made: 1) The change from the International Sunday School Outlines owned by the National Council of Churches to our own literature, written by Free Will Baptists, will be complete through the Adult quarterly, beginning with the first quarter of 1969. 2) The lessons will be uniform from the Intermediate through the Adult Quarterlies. 3) The lessons will be presented in a seven (7) year cycle from Genesis through Revelation. MSC to receive the report as information.

After several announcements, we adjourned until 9:30 A. M. Friday morning, November 17, 1967. We were dismissed in prayer by Rev. Guy F. Owens, pastor of the First Church, Florence.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 17, 1967

The devotional was brought by Rev. I. Bennie Turner, pastor of Beulah Church, Pamplico. His text was I John 4:10 — "He Loved Us." The following points were made concerning God's love: I. An Unlimited Love II. An Unusual Love III. An Unashamed Love IV. An Unselfish Love V. An Undeniable Love VI. An Unreturned Love. Rev. Guy F. Owens, pastor of First Church, Florence, closed the devotional in prayer.

Reverend Rufus Coffey was recognized and introduced as our new National Executive Secretary, and given an opportunity to report on the National work. Using as his text II Cor. 11:28, Rev. Coffey spoke to the body concerning some things that were on his heart. From this text, we're informed that we can expect all sorts of opposition. Paul was burdened for the care of all the churches, for the church has an important place and must be attended to. Bro. Coffey said that his concern, too, is for the care of the churches. Our responsibility is to build the Church, the body of Christ. God's building the Kingdom. The Church is not an organization, it's an organism, dedicated to the task of exalting Jesus and winning men to Him.

Other visitors recognized were: Rev. Henry Van Kluyve, Rev. Mark Vandivort, both from Nashville, Tenn., Rev. W. H. Calvert from Gastonia, N. C., Rev. Roy Rikard from Cramerton, N. C., Rev. The afternoon session opened by singing "I Will Follow," led by Rev. Lloyd Gore, pastor of Little Bethel, Johnsonville.

Brethren, let me say Thank You first of all to each person who has had a part in making our Superannuation program possible. Secondly, let me say a very special thank you to those who have offered suggestion and words of appreciation for this phase of our state work.

We now have four families receiving retirement assistance from us. There are several other ministers who have reached the age of retirement but they haven't applied for assistance. If they were to apply and their application were approved, we would have a problem of meeting their needs as is proven by the following financial summary. Therefore, we need more consistent financial support from our people.

Please note that we operated this year with a deficit of $161.32. Therefore please make this phase of our work a part of your church budget.

Below are some recommendations that 75% of the Board has approved for your consideration. One member did not respond to the inquiry he received concerning the recommendations. WE RECOMMEND THAT:

1. The Blue Cross, Blue Shield group for the ministers be continued as long as the group members desire to keep it; however, we recommend that the Superannuation Board not make any contribution to this group.
2. Each church constituting this State Association give as liberally and consistently as possible to Superannuation.
3. The Board member from each conference plan and conduct services in strategically located churches in his conference to introduce Superannuation to our people and familiarize them with our program.

This report with its recommendations is respectively submitted for your consideration.

Personal Message from the Director

As I prepared this report I was somewhat concerned by the small number of our churches that contribute to the Superannuation work. This concern became discouragement. As I compare the many hours of work that this office requires and the small amount of concern shown by Free Will Baptists in general, I asked myself this question, "Is it worth the time and effort that I have to put forth?" In reply to this question I began to think of our aging ministry and particularly those who no longer are active due to age and disability with whom I have debated and/or supported on the conference floors of this state. When I think of what these men had to do to make this State Association what it is today, of how they had to sacrifice to build churches in which we (the younger preachers) labor, their present financial condition due to the lack of vision on the part of the Free Will Baptist denomination to prepare for the "sunset" years, I have to conclude that indeed this is a worthwhile labor. Worthwhile? Yes, but a labor for which there is very little sympathy or cooperation on the part of the majority.

However, I thank God that some of our people share in this concern of mine. This is proven by the fact that our deficit this year is only $161.32 as compared to a deficit of $800.21 last year, and the year before it was $497.92. How much has the interest increased in Superannuation during the last two years? The only way I can answer this question is by comparing our receipts for the last three years. Our receipts for 1964-65 were $537.59; 1965-66 — $1,704.77; 1966-67 — $1,896.35.

Only about 1/3 of our churches made a contribution to Superannuation this year. Let's show the men who have given their lives to preach and teach God's Word to US that we appreciate their labors by making it possible for them to have some financial assistance from us as Free Will Baptists during their retirement years.

MAY GOD BLESS YOU IS MY PRAYER.

APPENDIX VI

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD 1967

The Word of God — received, understood, and applied is the answer, and the only answer, to the perilous times in which we live. The Apostle Paul's admonition to the young Timothy was — "But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned . . . the holy scriptures which are able to make thee wise unto salvation . . . throughly furnished unto all good works." (II Timothy 3:14, 15, 17). In these regards the Sunday School has a tremendous opportunity and likewise a tremendous responsibility.

Therefore we submit the following report:

- 1) We are grateful for the progress of many of our Sunday Schools throughout our state this year.
- 2) We commend the National Sunday School Dept. on their improved literature program especially in regards to changes from the International Lesson Outlines of the National Council of Churches.
- 3) In keeping with last year's recommendation the field director attempted to organize some workshops throughout the state this year in co-operation with the National Sunday School Dept. These were unsuccessful due to lack of co-operation within the state. We believe that the local pastor is the key to a successful Sunday School anyway and urge all our pastors to be alert to the challenge, investigate the opportunities, and pursue diligently the proper course for a successful Sunday School according to the needs of the individual church.

- 4) We particularly urge a systematic and vigilant plan of making new contacts and following up drop-outs.

We have the heavenly medicine for this very sick world. May we be diligent spiritual physicians.

Respectfully submitted,
Carroll G. Alexander

We would like to express our thanks to our Board of Trustees. I have never worked with a better group of men. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

If there is a mistake in your report, I will be happy to correct it. A mistake can be made so easily.

We invite you to our Home Coming. It is Thanksgiving at the Home. Bring a well-filled basket and eat with your children.

If anyone has corn, hay, or any commodities, and needs the truck to come to your church, please, contact me. Also, I would be glad to bring the children to visit in your church.

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise, by His grace, to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship; and by self-denial, faith, and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel; nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace. To be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
