REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Education:

We, your committee on Education, wish to submit this, our report: We find that our denomination, as a whole, are not putting forth the efforts they should in education, and we would urge them to look well to the rising generation in this respect, and any brother who desires to enter the ministry we recommend that he spend at least two years in our school at Ayden, N. C., or some other school of higher education. Respectfully submitted,

Temperance:

We, your committee on Temperance, beg leave to submit the following report: Knowing the destructive and damning effects caused by the use of intoxicating drinks—it destroys the happiness of homes, breaks innocent and trusting hearts, it brings shame on the church, prostitutes humanity, dishonors God and damns millions of immortal souls—therefore, we beg that our beloved Free Will Baptists totally abstain from the use of the deadly drink, that deadens, debauches and damns the noble impulses of humanity and that as a church we join all our forces and exercise all our powers to suppress the use of it and thereby stop its destructive effects, and that our preachers earnestly and forcefully condemn it from the stand.

Denominational Literature:

We, your committee on Denominational Literature, beg leave to submit this, our report: As we see that our country is being flooded with all manner of trashy literature, we recommend that our people abstain from such stuff by using the best literature obtainable in our homes. We further recommend that all of our Sunday schools so far as practical use our own literature, together with the F. W. B. paper, published at Ayden, N. C. Respectfully submitted.

State of Churches:

We, the committee on Condition of Church, beg leave to submit the following report: We find from best information that all churches are in very good condition except the following: We find that New Hope church is not in a prosperous condition and ask that this association investigate the matter. We also find that Brother T. G. Crosby is at this association with charges preferred against Fishing Creek church. We also find from the reading of various letters of the churches of this association it is in better spiritual and financial condition, but still there is room for improvement. We also recommend further that all churches hereafter come up with all funds, as we find that some churches failed to bring any Home Missions this time.

Character and Usefulness of the Ministry:

We, your committee, beg leave to report that our preachers are generally earnest workers, and doing all they can to win souls for the Master, while others are very careless and unconcerned, finding fault where they ought to be preaching the gospel, and, while the destitute churches are calling for help, they are idling away their time, and we recommend that the body look well to this and let those that we have harnessed work or get out of the gear.

CHURCH COVENANT.

Having given ourselves to God through Jesus Christ, and adopted the following articles as our confession of Faith, we now give ourselves to each other by the will of God, and agree to the following Church Covenant:

1. We solemnly covenant before God that we will strive by His assisting grace to exemplify our profession by a corresponding practice. We covenant and agree as members of the church and as Christians, to watch over each other in love, for mutual upbuilding in Gospel faith, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. To be careful of each other's reputation, to confess our faults one to another, to strengthen the feeble and kindly admonish the erring and to labor together for the building up of the church and the denomination and for the salvation of sinners.

2. We promise that we will faithfully and constantly maintain secret and family prayer and religiously instruct those under our care.

3. We will endeavor to uphold the public worship of Almighty God and ordinances of His Church, not to forsake the assembling of ourselves together; that we will cheerfully contribute of the means with which we are blessed for the support of our Pastor and other necessary expenses of the church. Any member failing to observe this covenant shall be dealt with by the Church.

4. We also promise that, unless Providentially hindered we will attend upon public worship, the social meetings of the church and report ourselves regularly at the monthly conferences and that we will walk in all ordinances of the Lord's House.

5. We covenant and agree that we will abstain from all vain amusements and sinful conformity to the world; that we will not traffic in the use nor furnish to others intoxicating drinks as a beverage, and that we will sustain the benevolent enterprises of our denomination and church, such as Missions, Education, Sabbath Schools, Moral Reform and all others which tend to the glory of God and to the welfare of men; and may the God of Peace sanctify us wholly and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, that we may join the glorified around the throne of God in ascribing blessings, honor, glory and power to Him that sitteth on the throne and unto the Lamb forever. Amen.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

1. We believe that there is but one living, true and eternal God, the Father of whom are all things, from everlasting to everlasting, glorious and immutable in all His attributes.—1 Cor. 8-6; Isa. 40:28.

2. We believe that there is but one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, the only begotten Son of God, born of the Virgin Mary, whom God freely sent into this world because of the great love wherewith he loved the world and Christ as freely gave himself a ransom for all, tasting death for every man who was buried and rose again the third day, and ascended into Heaven, from whence we look for him the second time in the clouds of Heaven at the last day to judge both the quick and the dead.—1 Tim. 3:5-6; Heb. 2:9; St. John 3:16; Rev. 1:7; Acts 24:15; 1 John 2:2.

3. We believe that there is one Holy Ghost, the precious gift of the Father through His dear Son, unto the world, who quickeneth and draweth sinners home to God.—St. John 16:7-8; Acts 2:4; Eph. 2:1, 4:4, 5-6.

4. We believe that in the beginning God made man upright and placed him in a state of Glory without the least mixture of misery from which the voluntary, by transgression, fell, and by that means brought on himself a miserable and mortal state, subject to death.—Gen. 2:17; 3:19.

5. We believe that God is not willing that any one should perish, but that all should come to repentance and the knowledge of the truth, that they might be saved, for which end Christ hath commanded the gospel be preached among all nations and to every creature.—Mark 16:16; Luke 24:47; John 3:15, 17; 1 Tim. 2:4.

5. We believe no man shall suffer in hell for want of a Christ who died for him; but as the scriptures has said, for denying the Lord that brought them, because they believed not in the only begotten Son of God. Unbelief therefore being the cause why the just and righteous God of heaven will condemn the children of men, it follows against all contradiction that all men at one time or other are found in such a capacity as that through the Grace of God they may be eternally saved.—Mark 6:6; Heb. 3:10; 1 John 5:10.

7. We believe that the whole scriptures are infallibly true, and that they are the only rules of faith and practice.—11 Tim. 3:16-17.

8. We believe in the doctrine of general provision made of God in Christ for the benefit of all mankind, who repent and believe the gospel.—Luke 14:16-20; Matt. 28:19-20; Luke 13:3-5; Acts 3:19; Mark 1:15.

9. We believe that sinners are drawn to God, the Father, by the Holy Ghost, through Christ, His Son, and that the Holy Ghost offers His divine aid to all the human family, so as they all might be happy, would they give place to His divine teaching; whereas, such who do not receive the divine impressions of His Holy Spirit shall at a future day own their condemnation just and charge themselves with their own damnation for wilfully rejecting the offers of sovereign grace.—Matt. 11:27; St. John 6:44-65; Psa. 1:1; Tit. 5:11-12; Jer. 22:29.

10. We believe that men, not considered simply as ungodly men, were of old ordained to condemnation; considered such who turn the grace of God into lasciviousness, denying the Lord God and our Lord Jesus Christ who bought them, and therefore shall bring upon themselves swift destruction, but we observe that they are such the Apostles saith because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved, therefore the indignation and wrath of God is upon every soul of man that doeth evil, living and dying therein; for there is no respect of persons with God.—Judge 1:4; II Peter 2:1; II Theess. 2:11-12; Rom. 2:9-1.

11. We believe that all children dying in infancy, having not actually transgressed against the law of God in their own person, are only subject to the first death, which was brought on them by the fall of Adam, and not that any one of them dying in that state shall suffer punishment in hell by the guilt of Adam's sin. Of such is the Kingdom of God.—I Cor. 15:32; Matt. 1:3-5; Mark 9:36-37; Matt. 19:14.

12. We believe that the good works are the fruits of saving faith, and that in the use of the means of grace and not out of the use of those means eternal life is promised to men.—Rev. 22:14-15; Isa. 1:19-20; Matt. 7-8; Jer. 13:34-35.

13. We believe that no man has any warrant in the Holy Scripture for justification before God through his own work, power or ability which he has in and of himself, only as he by grace is made able to come to God, through Jesus Christ; believing the righteousness of Jesus Christ to be imputed to all believers for their eternal acceptance with God.—Rom. 4:24; Acts 8:20-21.

14. We believe that all things are foreseen in the wisdom of God, so that God knoweth whatsoever can or cannot come to pass upon all supposed conditions; yet as not having decreed any person to everlasting death or everlasting life, out of respect of mere choice, farther than he hath appointed the godly unto life, and the ungodly who dies in sin unto death.—Heb. 4:13; Prov. 8:22-31; Matt. 25:31-46.

15. We believe in teaching gospel ordinances, in believer's baptism, laying on the hands, receiving of the sacrament in bread and wine, washing the saint's feet, anointing the sick with oil in the name of the Lord, fasting, prayer, singing praise unto God, and the public ministry of the Word, with every institution of the Lord we shall find in the New Testament. Mark 16:15-16; Acts 8:17-19-6; Luke 22:19-20; John 13:5-17; James 5-14.

16. We believe the gospel mode of baptism is by immersion and the believers are the only subjects for the baptism.—Matt. 3:16; Mark 1:9-10; Acts 3:3-29; Rom. 6:4; Cor. 2:12.

17. We believe in a general resurrection of the dead, and a final judgment at the last day.—John 5:28-29; II Cor. 5:10.

18. We believe the happiness of the righteous is eternal, and the torments of the wicked are endless.—Matt. 25:46.
