MINISTER'S REPORTS

To the South Miss. Association of Free Will Baptist. I make my report of the Lord Jesus Christ:

I have pastored 2 churches half-time; run 1 revival; married 1 couple; conducted 5 funerals; total number of sermons preached 115; miles traveled approximately 5000; money received $1100.00.

I desire your prayers for the coming years of work.

Rev. Truman Freeman

Greetings in the name of the Lord to the South Miss. Association of Free Will Baptist, convening with Bethel Church Sept. 4, 1964:

I present the following report of my years work. Number of miles travelled unknown; pastored 1 church half-time; funerals 1; weddings 2; received for pastoral work $312.25.

Your brother in Christ

Rev. A. J. Conway

To the South Miss. Association Free Will Baptist Church. My work this year: I pastored Bethel Church 3 months; received $94.85; held 1 revival; received $59.00; preached 2 funerals; married 2 couples; miles travelled unknown. My work was small hope to do more next year. I need your prayers so pray for me that I will do God's will. And I will pray for you all.

Rev. F. O. Banks

To the South Miss. Association Free Will Baptist:

My report as follows: pastored 1 full time church 6 months; members received 15; baptized 8; money received for pastoral work $350.00; held one revival; money received $75.00.

Earnestly covet your prayers.

Rev. G. M. Pearson

Very sorry that my health has been to where I couldn't go out to preach. Some are praying for me as my health is improving. And by the help of God I am going out for the Lord as long as my health permits. I married 3 couples this past year.

Yours in Christ

Rev. Joe H. Palmer

Greetings in the name of the Lord to the South Miss. Association of Free Will Baptist:

I present the following report of my years work: miles traveled unknown; sermons preached unknown; help pastor one church half-time; money received $18.00. I want all the association to pray for me.

Yours in Christ

Bro. Marshall Walters

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

We the committee on Sunday School make this report: We find that all churches have a good Sunday School. And we hope and pray that we can all do a better part this coming year than we have in the past. We believe that it is Bible training for our children and grown-ups.

Mrs. Virley O'Neal
Mrs. Myrtle Phillips
Rev. L. D. Walley

OBITUARY REPORT

We your Obituary Committee report as follows:

Fellowship Church, William Brewer, age 61; Bethel Church, Rev. C. M. Jenkins
Cecil Walley
Buddie Nowell

TEMPERANCE REPORT

We urge that all Christians living before God, we should be temperate in all things. First of all leave off all strong drinks. We should, in dealing with our fellowman being careful not to do or say anything that would cause one to stumble. We urge as Christians believing in Christ be temperate in dealing with one another always willing to lend a helping hand and always doing the thing that would be pleasing to the Lord.

FROM THE QUARTERLY MEETING TO THE SOUTH MISS. ASSOCIATION

I. We meet you by letter and delegation and send our beloved Sister Margie Brewer and Bro. Raymond Davis to confer with you in any business. The Quarterly meeting accepted Bro. Simpson in as minister. And Bro. Charlie Jenkins. The Quarterly meeting borrowed $250.00 from the Home Mission Board to finance the Bible School to be held Aug. 17, through the 28, 1964.

The Moderator appointed a three man committee to write up a questionnaire to be answered by all ministers coming into the Association before ordination. And this be recommended to the Association. The questionnaire furnished is attached to this letter.

II. The Quarterly meeting recommends to the Association that deacons and ministers wives be seated as delegates in the Quarterly meeting and Association as ministers and deacons are.

III. We recommend to the Association that a committee be formed to represent to the N.E. Miss. Association that a state association may be formed which can represent Miss. Free Will Baptist to the next Association.

IV. We suggest that the deacons of all churches form an organization to meet with each other to discuss any problems which might be helped to any of our churches to work together, for the advancement of our calls in the Lord's work. The quarterly meeting passed to take $14.42 out of the treasury and pay the clerk of the Association the balance of his expense due him for 1963.

We are sending $20.00 from the Quarterly meeting to the Association for minute funds.

This done by the order of the Quarterly meeting while in session at Lee's Chapel Church Jones County May 30, 1964.

Cecil Walley, moderator
Dave Palmer, clerk

Constitution

Article 1. This Association shall be known as South Miss. Free-will Baptist Association of Mississippi and be composed of delegates from churches composing same. Each church shall be entitled to two delegates to represent her at each session.

Article 2. This body shall be considered an advisory council, but having no authority over local affairs of the church.

Article 3. Each church of this body shall be considered an independent body, and shall control her own affairs in matter of discipline so long as she does not exercise authority over the association or the quarterly meeting.

Article 4. All questions of doctrine and matters of general interest shall be settled by two-thirds vote of the association, and this vote shall be final.

Article 5. The officers of this Association shall be a Moderator, Assistant Moderator and Treasurer, who shall be chosen by a majority vote annually.

Article 6. This association shall meet at such time and place as shall be most convenient and shall not adjourn finally until all business is transacted.

Article 7. Churches wishing to become members of this Association must adopt the article of faith and conform to its usage. We agree as churches composing this Association, to use our best influence to promote the interest of all moral and benevolent institutions, such as Temperance Cause, Sunday School, Missions, and so on.

Article 8. Any member of a church feeling that he is being called to God and led by the Spirit to preach His everlasting Gospel shall first make his calling known to his church where he is a member. And if the church after its examination feels he be wanting of license to preach, shall have authority to do so, and recommend to a quarterly meeting or the Association for legal ordination.

Article 9. This constitution shall be amended at any regular session by two-thirds vote of the members present, provided the change is recommended in writing on the day before the vote is to be taken.

RULES OF DECORUM

Article 1. This Association shall be called to order by the former moderator, who presided at the last session; the former clerk also officiates until the body is fully organized.

Article 2. The moderator and Clerk shall be chosen by nomination at each session; a majority of members present elect by ballot.

Article 3. The names of delegates from the different churches shall be enrolled and called as often as necessary during the session.

Article 4. A majority of delegates shall rule in a case except in reception of churches into our body, which shall be unanimous.

Article 5. The moderator shall vote in case only when the Association is equally divided, but shall have equal right to speak on any question, provided he puts the assistant in the chair while he is speaking.

Article 6. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall arise and address the moderator.

Article 7. No brother shall be interrupted while speaking unless he departs from the subject under discussion, or uses words of personal reflection.

Article 8. No person shall be allowed to speak more than 10 minutes at a time, not more than twice on any one subject without the consent of the body.

Article 9. No member shall laugh or talk during the time the discussion is going on.

Article 10. No member shall absent himself from the Association while in session without leave of the moderator.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. The Bible, the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament, were given by inspiration of God and are our infallible rule of faith and practice.

2. God. There is one living and true God revealed in nature as the Creator, Preserver, and Righteous Governor of the universe, and in the Scriptures as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, yet as one God, infinitely wise and good, whom all intelligent creatures are supremely to love, adore, and obey.

3. Christ. Christ is God manifest in the flesh; in His divine nature truly God, in His human nature truly man. The Mediator between God and man, once crucified He is now risen and glorified and is our ever present Saviour and Lord.

4. The Holy Spirit. The Scriptures assign to the Holy Spirit all the attributes of God.

5. The Government of God. God exercises a wise and benevolent providence over all beings and all things by maintaining the constitution and laws of nature. He also performs special acts, not otherwise provided for, as the highest welfare of men requires.

6. The Sinfulness of Man. Man was created innocent but by disobedience fell into a state of sin and condemnation. His posterity therefore, inherit a fallen nature of such tendencies that all who come to years of accountability sin, and become guilty before God.

7. The Work of Christ. The Son of God by His incarnation, life, sufferings, death and resurrection effected for all a redemption from sin that is full and free and is the ground of salvation by faith.

8. The Terms of Salvation. The conditions of salvation are. 1. Repentance or sincere sorrow for sin and hearty renunciation of it. 2. Faith or the unreserved committal of one's self to Christ as Saviour and Lord with purpose to love and obey Him in all things. In the exercise of saving faith the soul is renewed by the Holy Spirit, freed from the dominion of sin and becomes a child of God. 3. Continuation in faith and obedience until death.

9. Election. God determined from the beginning to save all who should comply with the conditions of salvation. Hence by faith in Christ men become His elect.

10. Freedom of the Will. The human will is free and self-controlled, having power to yield to the influence of the truth and the Spirit, or to resist them and perish.

11. Salvation Free. God desires the salvation of all, the Gospel invites all, the Holy Spirit strives with all, and whosoever will may come and take of the water of life freely.

12. Perseverance. All believers in Christ, who through grace persevere in holiness to the end of life, have promise of eternal salvation.

13. Gospel Ordinances. Baptism, or the immersion of believers in water, and the Lord's Supper, are ordinances to be perpetuated under the Gospel; feet washing, an ordinance teaching humility, of universal obligation, and to be ministered to all true believers.

14. Tithing. God commanded tithes and offerings in the old Testament; Jesus Christ endorsed it in the Gospel (Matt. 23-24) and the Apostle Paul said, "Upon the first day of the week let everyone of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him." (I Cor. 16-2).

15. The Christian Sabbath. The Divine Law requires that one day in seven be set apart from secular employments and amusements, for rest, worship, holy works and activities and for personal communications with God.

16. Resurrection. Judgment and Final Retribution. The Scriptures teach the resurrection of all men at the last day. They that have done good will come forth to the resurrection of life and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation; then the wicked will "go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise by His Grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship; and by self-denial, faith and good works endeavor to "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences; public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church or its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principles sacred and Christian obligations and enterprise supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society constantly by praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of Missions, the success of Sunday Schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of Peace sanctify us wholly and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
