The Christian Education Committee set the CTS rally in May at Lee's Chapel FWB Church in Wayne City. The winners were all from Lee's Chapel, Wayne City; Bible Bowl, Tic Tac Toe, Sword Drill, Memory Verse 3rd grade, Music and Group Singing. The committee has set the next rally in May, 1977.

The committee has talked to several of your pastors about Sunday school revivals and a Bible study course for the preachers, Sunday school superintendents, teachers, CTS directors, and anyone who would like to learn more about the Bible.

We recommend that this committee work with the pastors through their quarterly fellowship meetings.

We would like to thank Bro. J. L. Gore for coming down and judging the CTS competition and Bro. Glen Shelby for the use of his church.

Bro. Winford Walley
Bro. J. C. Burgess

RESOLUTION

We, the Resolution Committee, recommend an amendment to Section 3 (Article 3 of Constitution) be as follows: The Christian Education Committee shall be a standing committee composed of 3 members with 1 going off each year. Passed.

We recommend that Section 2 of Article 3 be amended to read as follows: The moderator shall appoint a committee to investigate all ministers on inactive list of this body. Also call for credentials of need. This was tabled until January, 1977.

We recommend the South Ms. Association consider this proposal.

We think it's time that we take a stand concerning abortion. We do not feel it is a Christian act and would like to use our power to stand against the laws made and future laws concerning abortion. We feel that abortion is an act of murder and it's time that our voice be heard.

Rev. J. K. Walley, chairman

Bro. Steve Brewer

Mrs. James V. Bishop

CREDENTIALS

We recommend that Rev. Paul E. Daniels, after being questioned, we find him sound in doctrine, faith, and practice of the Free Will Baptist and hereby recommend that he be received as an ordained Free Will Baptist minister pending a letter of recommendation from the Blue Grass FWB Conference of the Kentucky State Association.

We recommend Bro. C. M. Jenkins be given a card of good standing as a member of the Thompson Creek Church.

We recommend Rev. E. Dwight Fletcher, pastor of Fellowship at the request of Fellowship Church to question him as a Free Will Baptist minister. After questioning him, we find him sound in doctrine, faith, and practice of Free Will Baptist and hereby be received as an ordained FWB minister pending a letter of recommendation from the Cumberland Association of Tennessee.

Rev. Daniel Gaskins

Rev. Larry Reynolds

Rev. Bobby Martin

Rev. Frank Henderson

Rev. Truman Freeman

TEMPERANCE

We, the Temperance Committee, make the following recommendation:

We as Free Will Baptists first of all live our life separated from worldly lust as the Bible teaches us to abstain from the very appearance of evil.

That we should remember this when we are tempted by Satan with drugs, alcoholic beverages or anything that would be able to take over and rule this natural body so we could not give all we have for the cause of Christ.

We believe that if this association will work for the cause of Christ leaving Satan behind us that all the veins of our work will have a better report to give at our next associational meeting.

Rev. Cordell Walley

Bro. Jimmy O. Walley

Bro. Roger Davis

CONGRATULATION

We, your Congratulations Committee, want to express our thanks to the Richton Free Will Baptist Church for its wonderful hospitality to the annual association, also to all the officers and delegates composing this body for a job well done. We would ask at this time for all present to stand to show appreciation to the host church.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. The Bible, the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament, were given by inspiration of God and are our infallible rule of faith and practice.

2. God. There is only one living and true God revealed in nature as the Creator, Preserver and Righteous Governor of the Universe, and in the Scriptures as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, yet as one God, infinitely wise and good, whom all intelligent creatures are supremely to love, adore, and obey.

3. Christ. Christ is God manifest in the flesh: in His divine nature truly God, in His human nature truly man. The Mediator between God and man, once crucified, He is now risen and glorified and is our ever present Saviour and Lord.

4. The Holy Spirit. The Scriptures assign to the Holy Spirit all the attributes of God.

5. The Government of God. God exercised a wise and benevolent province over all beings and all things by maintaining the constitution and laws of nature. He also performs special acts, not otherwise provided for, as the highest welfare of men requires.

6. The Sinfulness of Man. Man was created innocent but by disobedience fell into a state of sin and condemnation. His posterity, therefore, inherit a fallen nature of such tenderness that all who come to years of accountability sin and become guilty before God.

7. The Work of Christ. The Son of God by His incarnation, life, suffering, death, and resurrection effected for all a redemption from sin that in full and free is the ground of salvation by faith.

8. The Terms of Salvation. The conditions of salvation are: (1) Repentance of sincere sorrow for sin and hearty renunciation of it. (2) Faith or the unreserved committed of one's self to Christ as Savior and Lord with purpose to love and obey Him in all things. In the exercise of saving faith, the soul is renewed by the Holy Spirit, freed from the dominion of sin, and becomes a child of God. (3) Continuation in faith and obedience until death.

9. Election. God determined from the beginning to save all who should comply with the conditions of salvation. Hence, by faith in Christ men become His elect.

10. Freedom of the Will. The human will is free and self-controlled, having power to yield to the influence of the truth of the Spirit, or to resist them and perish.

11. Salvation Free. God desires the salvation of all, the Gospel invites all, the Holy Spirit strives for all, and whosoever will may come and take of the water of life freely.

12. Perseverance. All believers in Christ, who through grace persevere in holiness to the end of life, have promise of eternal salvation.

13. Gospel Ordinances. Baptism, or the immersion of believers in water, and the Lord's Supper, are ordinances to be perpetuated under the Gospel; feetwashing, an ordinance teaching humility, of universal obligation, and to be ministered to all true believers.

14. Tithing. God commanded tithes and offerings in the Old Testament; Jesus Christ endorsed it in the Gospel (Matthew 23:33) and the Apostle Paul said, "Upon the first day of the week let everyone of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him" (1 Corinthians 16:2).

15. The Christian Sabbath. The divine law requires that one day in seven be set aside from secular employment and amusements for rest, worship Holy works, and activities and for personal communication with God.

16. Resurrection. The Scriptures teach the resurrection of all men at the last day. They that have done good will come forth to the resurrection of life and they that have done good will come forth to the resurrection of life and they that have done with evil unto the resurrection of damnation; then the wicked will "go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise by His grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicated beverages and to provide things honest in the sight of all men.

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship; and by self-denial, faith, and good works endeavor to "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church or its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as for us we are able to promote the success of the church and of the gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principles sacred and Christian obligations and enterprise supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society constantly by praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
