PROCEEDINGS OF THE ANNUAL MEETING

The Sixty-eighth session of the Southern Union of the Free Will Baptist met on September 24, 1994 at Camp Nebo near Holt, Florida.

The meeting began at 9:00 a.m. Brother Ralph Bass (Moderator) welcomed those in attendance, and asked Brother Ed Bass to lead in prayer. Brother Ed Bass directed the congregation in singing. The customary handshake took place in the auditorium. Then had prayer by Brother Tony Orsa.

Sister Glynda Cupp read the annual church reports (reports are found in a chart at the end of this publication). All reported information was accepted by majority vote.

Letter read from First Free Will Baptist Church of Flomaton asking to be dismissed from our Association.

Brother Jim Turner read the annual treasurer report and it was accepted by the body.

Rev. Douglas Carey was accepted as Minister into the Association by majority.

The body agreed the only committee necessary was the suggestion committee. Appointed by the moderator to serve on this committee were Glynda Cupp, Randy Bass, Treva Bass, Naomi Wilkinson, and Douglas Carey.

Rev. Douglas Carey delivered the morning message, dealing with discouragement; how to relate to changes in Church and society; don't be afraid to change; fight bitterness; don't look back; and minister to people where they are today.

Prayer by Brother Orsa. Break for lunch.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The congregation convened at 1:15 p.m. Singing, "Tis So Sweet To Trust In Jesus". Devotion by Brother Ralph Bass, "What's In It For Me?".

Suggestion committee suggested that we go to semi-annual meetings instead of quarterly. The body voted to meet in March and September. Mobile will be the host Church for meeting March 19, 1995. Meeting to start at 10:00 a.m. Annual meeting to be held at Camp Nebo on September 23, 1995 starting at 10:00 a.m. Brother W. A. Wilkinson and Brother Ralph Bass to be on campsite committee.

The body requested that W. A. Wilkinson be on the Children Home Board for one more year.

Pay insurance and keep camp for one more year. Try to get more interest in camp. Be more active in Churches and camp.

Send Spence Brothers a Thank-you card for all the yard work they have done at Camp Nebo.

Prayer by Sister Wavie Lee Mims, followed by collection of $53.00 for Children Home and $98.00 for Camp Nebo.

Meeting ended with song, "Till We Meet Again", and handshake to welcome Brother Douglas Carey into our association.

Temperance Committee: We, the temperance committee, suggest that Christian people avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from sinful amusements and worldly conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages and drugs, to provide things honest in the sight of all men and pray for and encourage each other daily.

Sunday School Committee: We, the committee on the Sunday School, find three (3) churches have an active Sunday School with a total of 55 members. We would like to stress the importance of Sunday School in teaching the fundamentals of the faith and ground of the body of Christ. We pray for saving of souls and the cause of Christ to be strengthened. We ask each member of the association to pray and strive for an active Sunday School showing our youth a way of life to be desired and a vision of heavenly things to come.

Ladies Auxiliary Committee: We, the Ladies' Auxiliary Committee, find one active auxiliary in our association. We regret some of the other groups have failed to function recently. We show a total membership of ten (10). We have a central thrust of missions and try to assist the pastor and other officers in the church where possible. In these times we strongly urge our women to form an active group where none exist and let us all strive to further the cause of Christ. Only one church has a Ladies' Auxiliary at this time.

Resolutions Committee: Be it resolved that the Southern Union Association of Free Will Baptists re-affirm the fundamental principles of orthodox Christian faith and morality:

That we stand for public morality, withstanding the social ills of feminism, abortion, and homosexuality;

That we stand for the reintroduction of prayer into the public schools, as well as the fair and objective treatment of Biblical creation in the public school classroom; and

That we re-affirm our orthodox position on the plenary-verbal inspiration, infallibility, and inerrancy of Holy Scripture in a day when such doctrines are easily dispensed with.

Obituaries Committee: With deepest regret, we report the death of this member.

Brother J. C. Mathews

Our loss is Heavens' gain.

Suggestions Committee: The following suggestions were made by the committee and passed by majority vote:

1. Continue Association with 3 current member Churches.
2. Recommend churches use camp for church functions.
Insurance paid on camp for one more year.
3. Send Thank-you letter to Spence Brothers for up-keep of grounds at Camp Nebo.
4. Go to bi-annual meeting in March with annual meeting in September.

March 19, 1995, 10:00 a.m. at Mobile church

September 23, 1995, 10:00 a.m. at Camp Nebo

Resolution of Thanks: We, the people of the Southern Union wish to express in written form our gratitude for the work of the New Bethany Free Will Baptist Church and Shady Hill Free Will Baptist Church in preparing Camp Nebo for our annual meeting. Furthumore, we wish to thank everyone else that has made this past associational year a successful one. To attempt to name everyone who has been involved in that success would be futile. May the Lord who leaves no good deed unrewarded smile upon you each.

Respectfully,

Ina Walters

AS TO THE RULES - ARTICLE 1

- |           |  |
|-----------|--|
| Section 1 | When a sufficient number of members are ready for organization, the articles of faith and the covenant shall be read, and if adopted, the right hand of fellowship shall be extended. After prayer, they shall proceed to the election of officers, after which they shall be declared organized and ready for business. |
| Section 2 | No church shall be organized with less than three male members nor within six miles of another church of the same faith, unless in towns or cities.  |
| Section 3 | The officers of a church shall be a pastor, one or more deacons, a clerk and treasurer, and not less than three trustees.  |
| Section 4 | The church shall call their pastor at the next conference preceding the last regular conference in the associational year, unless in case of vacancy, in such a case they may call a conference for that purpose.  |
| Section 5 | Any church, in case of necessity, may call a conference and elect one of their members or a visiting minister as moderator.  |
| Section 6 | The church may hold a conference as often as it deems necessary.   |

- Section 7                   It is suggested that the church commune and wash the members' feet as often as convenient, and it shall not be postponed on account of disobedient members.
- Section 8                   The church shall not try a member without a hearing unless said member refuses to attend the conference when notified to do so.
- Section 9                   The church is to recommend the questioning of any member for licensing, the same as for ordination.
- Section 10                  A presbytery of 5 ordained men shall be appointed by the moderator to hold office for 5 years to conduct ordination of ministers or deacons for this association or any church connected with this association.
- Section 11                  Deacons shall not be ordained until they are tried.
- Section 12                  Each minister shall be a member of some live church and in good standing with the church.
- Section 13                  It shall be the duty of every member, male or female, to attend each conference meeting if possible. On that day, the pastor is expected to instruct the church in a spiritual manner by giving plain and pointed lessons on doctrine, discipline, the rule of holy living, and the church member's duties.
- Section 14                  As the Scriptures teach against worldliness in any form, be it resolved that each member seek the divine guidance of the Holy Spirit in things that pertain to holy and righteous living.

ARTICLE 2

- Section 1 The pastor shall attend his church unless providentially hindered and shall sit as moderator to see that justice is carried out. In case of his absence, he is to appoint some suitable brother to assume his responsibility when he thinks the situation warrants such action. He shall also hold a protracted meeting with his church once a year.
- Section 2 The deacons shall be elected by the church and shall hold office at the discretion of the church. They shall watch the flock, advise the unruly members, and report such to the church in conference when necessary. They may administer the ordinance of baptism, shall make all necessary arrangements for the communion, monitor the needs of the church and the support of the pastor. They shall take notice of such members who refuse or neglect to partake of the Lord's Supper and wash each other's feet, and endeavor to ascertain the cause that the same may be laid before the church in conference.
- Section 3 The clerk shall be elected by the church and shall hold office at the discretion of same. He shall keep a record of the members and minutes of the business transactions of the church and shall read the same in conference as often as the church may demand. He shall turn all books and papers over to his successor in office.
- Section 4 The treasurer shall be elected by the church, shall hold office at the will of the church, shall hold monies paid into the church for general expenses, and shall turn over all money and papers to his successor.
- Section 5 The trustees shall be elected by the church, and shall hold office for two years until their successors are elected, unless removed for cause. They shall look after the repairs of the church, but they cannot sell or otherwise dispose of the church property without an order from the church in conference.
- Section 6 No one shall be received in the church unless Scripturally baptized by immersion by an ordained baptizer.
- Section 7 Members must pay their debts contracted by themselves or make satisfactory arrangements with their creditors, and they shall help pay their pastor.

- Section 8 We recommend that each church elect a Home Missions Treasurer and all money collected for Home Missions be retained in the church and paid out only by order of the church.
- Section 9 No preacher has a right to organize and bring a church into our Association without the arm of a church in our Association to help organize and presbytery same.
- Section 10 We recommend that each ordained minister in our Association obtain credentials showing the denomination that ordained him, the name of the church, the country, and the state. If possible, the presbytery that ordained him should also be named.
- Section 11 It is required of each church to do everything possible to promote religious work by encouraging your members to speak in public in behalf of our Saviour.
- Section 12 Each church shall encourage its members to attend every conference possible, to study the minutes, follow the rules and the articles of faith which are to be read in the church at least once a year.
- Section 13 No member shall leave the house without sufficient cause nor engage in conversation without being subject to being called to order by the moderator.
- Section 14 All discussion in conference must be conducted with calmness and good feelings. Those who speak Section 14 must rise to their feet, address the moderator and stay with the point in debate.
- Section 15 No member shall speak more than twice on the same subject without permission from the moderator, nor shall the remarks of any member be unreasonably long.
- Section 16 When the moderator speaks in debate, he shall nominate some other moderator in his stead.
- Section 17 No one shall be interrupted while speaking unless it is necessary to call him to order.
- Section 18 The Executive Committee is the governing body of the Association to act on things pertaining to the Association when the Association is not in session.

PERMANENT REGULATIONS

1. The officers shall be elected every 2 years.
2. Each church may appoint up to 4 delegates to the Association each year.
3. All deacons from the different churches are to be counted as standing delegates to the Association.
4. Minutes will be kept by Clerk of the Quarterly Meetings and recorded in the Annual Minutes.
5. The clerk is to write the Resolution of Thanks.
6. Each church is to record and report their Children's Home offering separate from other offerings.
7. A letter of explanation from each church is to be sent in absence of representation at the Quarterly Meetings.
8. No minister shall be held responsible for marrying anyone unknowingly who has previously been married, having a living husband or living wife.
9. No minister is to be called as pastor or used as an evangelist in any church in this Association without being subject to questioning by the ordaining council.
10. No minister is to be used as an evangelist in this Association except one of Free Will Baptist Faith.
11. Each church recommends someone from their membership to be placed on the executive committee every two years.

GUIDELINES FOR ORDINATION

1. This Association ordains no man that has more than one living wife; nor a man whose wife has more than one living husband.
2. Every minister carries a license until he is either called to a church or enters full time evangelistic work. The license of ministers licensed by this Association are to be reissued each year if the church of which they are member makes this request.
3. This Association ordains no one that doesn't fully believe the faith and practices of the Free Will Baptist Treatise.
4. This Association ordains no one that doesn't believe and practice tithing.
5. This Association ordains no one that doesn't believe in the verbal inspiration of the Word of God.

6. This Association will not ordain women to preach the Gospel.
7. This Association will not ordain anyone that is affiliated with the World Council of Churches.
8. This Association will not ordain anyone with a bad testimony with them that are without.
9. This Association will not ordain anyone that doesn't believe and practice the ordinances of the church.
10. This Association will not ordain anyone that doesn't believe a person can apostatize and be lost.

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Jesus Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise by His grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to provide things honest in the sight of men.

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship, and by self-denial, faith and good works endeavor to grow in the grace and in knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "Keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace to be careful to one another's happiness and reputation, seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and the gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principles sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society; constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on Earth as it is in heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday

Schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world.

And may the God of Peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
