HISTORICAL COMMISSION

This report does not reflect any organized efforts by the commission but only minuscule individual efforts.

Pictures have been made of existing buildings whose congregations have disbanded. Gestures are being made to secure full and accurate historical accounts of individual congregations. This is a slow and time consuming assignment. Future efforts will continue to be concentrated on the histories of individual congregations, both those that exist currently and those whose story is a retrospective one.

TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE

We, your Temperance Committee, submit the following report: The Christian Temperance Union was started in 1874 as a total abstinence movement against all alcoholic beverages. This should be taught and the Church stresses the importance of the word Temperance. I Corinthians 10:31, "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God."

Temperance in fact meaning moderation, and being taught throughout the Holy Word of God. We would with vigor urge that Christian people of all Churches and especially of the Free Will Baptist Church to abstain from intoxicating beverages, and to use moderation in word, appetite, passions and temper.

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant. We promise, by His grace, to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship; and by self-denial, faith, and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel; nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, or its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace. To be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel. We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
