Reports of T.W.A.C. Officers

Preface

"Declaring His Glory—Our Responsibility" has been chosen as the theme for the 1962 session of the Tennessee Woman's Auxiliary Convention.

Today Tennessee Free Will Baptist Women are being called upon to give attention to the greatest need in all the world—the need of Christ in the heart, and to consider the Why, the Where and the How of their responsibility.

Never in the world's history was it more important that Christ's witnesses declare positively His glory than it is today. The world is at a crisis; of that we are being constantly reminded by the press, the radio, scientists, statesmen and preachers. Truly "Today is ours to make tomorrow His."

Think again prayerfully of the watchword of the Woman's Auxiliary: "Laborers together with God." In 1963, remember that as we do labor together, He is with us in our every effort to "Declare His Glory." This is the continuing responsibility of every T.W.A.C. member.

Recording Secretary's Report

Statistics Department Chairman

Facts gleaned from the 1961-62 reports sent in by two district secretaries and one local auxiliary secretary give us reason for both praise and concern.

We give praise unto God and thanks to every Woman's Auxiliary member for the achievements made this convention year.

There is also an abiding concern for all of those members who didn't participate fully in the projects set at the 1961 T.W.A.C. meeting.

Jesus Christ came to earth not only to die, but to teach His followers how to live. We believe His desire for every Auxiliary member is to help us translate our problems into opportunities to "Go" (enlist each member in Missionary activities); to "Pray" (enlarge each member spiritually) and to "Teach" (inform and improve each mentally).

As we leave this convention today may some words found in Neh. 4:15 be said of every Woman's Auxiliary member in Tennessee: "We returned . . . everyone unto his work."

In 1962-63 may each of the 778 Auxiliary members mend together out of the broken fragments of our 1961-62 efforts, a more excellent record of 1962-63 achievements through which God's glory has been declared on home and foreign fields, and in which God may rest and delight Himself.

My Personal Report is as follows:

Attended:

- 18 local auxiliary meetings
- 3 Seasons of Prayer

- 2 district conventions

Woman's Auxiliary Chief Aims in Review

The purpose and place of the organization called Woman's Auxiliary by Free Will Baptists, are expressed in and carried out through its chief aims. Whenever these aims are understood every phase of activity is charged with meaning. The organizational structure and the promotional program then fall into proper perspective. They are as they should be—means to an end—the end being the proclamation of the gospel around the world.

These aims and the projects adopted at the annual session, and listed in the Plan of Work, constitute the Woman's Auxiliary activities expected of every auxiliary member during the convention year and about which each officer is requested to report achievement annually to her superior officer. Through these aims the nine auxiliary officers seek to do the following:

1. To Develop the Spiritual Life of All Members through:
 - A. Encouraging daily Bible study
 - B. The Use of W.N.A.C. Prayer Calendar
 - C. Efforts toward Establishing Family Altars
2. To Bring Other Women and Youth into the Experience of Missionary Endeavors through:

 - C. Well-planned Committee Meetings held regularly.

8. To Build and Maintain a Business-like Operation of the Woman's Auxiliary through:
 - A. Good system of records to teach faithfulness, respect, and individual responsibility.
 - B. Recording Achievements

- C. Reporting systematically in order to provide needed information, and to aid the auxiliary in doing a better job of Missionary education in the Church.
9. To Build a True Pattern of the Lord's Work by Communicating the W.A. Purpose and Activities to Others through:
 - A. Using the Media of local newspapers to motivate attendance and participation.
 - B. Writing cards and letters to create and sustain interest and to insure growth.

It is impossible to build and maintain a good Missionary education Auxiliary in the church without an effective Plan of Work and a good System of Records, and Capable enthusiastic officers to operate both. It is believed T.W.A. now has these. May we All endeavor earnestly and diligently to prove it by our good works done in 1962-63 to "Declare His Glory", and if the Lord tarries, the faithful reporting of them by each officer at Johnson City on November 13, 1963.
