TENNESSEE FREE WILL BAPTIST WOMAN'S AUXILIARY CONVENTION

25th Annual Session

THEME — "A Changeless Christ In a Changing World"

SCRIPTURE — "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever."
Hebrew 13:8

CHORUS — "Yesterday, Today, Forever"

MUSICIANS — Rev. George Lee Director; Mrs. Doris Raper, Pianist

Tuesday Morning, November 10, 1970

The twenty-fifth session of the Tennessee Woman's Auxiliary Convention convened in the First Free Will Baptist Church in Elizabethton, Tennessee at 9:30 A.M. Mrs. Myrtle Reeds, Acting President of TWAC, called the meeting to order. After reading the chosen scripture, Hebrews 13:8, Rev. George Lee directed the theme chorus and also led in singing "Send The Light." Mrs. Raper was at the piano. The invocation was led by Rev. Albert Holbrook.

Mrs. Doris Raper gave a most cordial welcome to all. Mrs. James Greenway gave the response.

Mrs. Reeds appointed the following committees to serve during the session:

Credentials — Mrs. George Lee, Mrs. Paul Woolsey, Mrs. Agnes Vaughn.

Finance — Clara M. Picirilli, Mrs. W. B. Harris, Mrs. Don Ellis.

Honor Awards — Mrs. Dennis Christian, Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mrs. Linda Wright.

Appreciation — Mrs. Zula Wolfengbarger, Mrs. Myrtle Christian, Mrs. E. M. French.

Resolutions — Mrs. Ralph Staten, Mrs. Willard McCarroll.

Plan of Work — Mrs. Cleo Pursell, Mrs. Jane Greenway, Gennette McNeese.

Registration — Mrs. Bennie Turner, Mrs. Lawrence Yelton, Mrs. Holbrook.

"Great Is Thy Faithfulness" was effectively rendered by Mrs. Doris Raper preceding the presentation of THE FIELDS AT HOME:

Rosie Crisher, from the National Home Missions Department, brought greetings from the Larry Powells serving in the VIRGIN ISLANDS for the past three years. There are approximately 40,000, predominately Catholic, natives who need to hear of the great sacrifice made for them, as well as for us who hear it over and over. Many professional people employed on the islands are becoming a part of the work, also. There is much to praise the Lord for.

Rosie, too, brought news from PUERTO RICO, where the Fred McCoys represent us to two and one-half million, mostly Catholic, Spanish-speaking people. They have labored in this part of God's Vineyard for a little over a year. Our support is deserved here, also.

Miss Sue May, from the Bible College, spoke to the convention in regard to her summer spent in St. Paul, Minnesota last year. Her work in Good News Clubs with the children near the home of the Robert Francis' was blessed with several decisions for Christ. The Francises have been in ST. PAUL a little over one year. Prayer is requested for these children, their parents, and for the city of over 300,000, and for its twin, Minneapolis, of 465,000 souls.

Mrs. Bill Van Winkle spoke on the MURFREESBORO PROJECT, where she and Bro. Van assumed leadership in September 1970. In the beginning there were only four families attending. She requested prayer for spiritual growth of those attending and for financial support as the needs demand. The Donelson Church has been a great help in their work. The congregation stood as Rev. Harvey Hill led in prayer on behalf of the different mission fields, and missionaries, home and foreign.

The musicians directed the congregation in singing "Jesus Saves."

A memorial service was led by Mrs. Dennis Christian, giving tribute to those who have left behind them the memory of a life of dedication and service. Mrs. Reeds led the closing prayer.

Preceding the morning message, Mrs. Richard Adams of Elizabethton, rendered a lovely special number, "Fill My Cup, Lord."

Reverend Robert Shockey, Field Worker with the National Home Missions Department, gave a report on the work in ALASKA where "God is in it." Don Farris and family visited the area and later returned to lead the few Free Will Baptists left. There is a great need for young men with quality who will "dig out" a work for God. He urged the support of this fine family.

In connection with the theme of the day, Rev. Shockey reminded us of the wickedness of the world today. Signs point toward more sin in homes and churches. But we have a Christ to follow who is changeless in Wisdom; Holiness; Love; Power over the flesh, the Devil, and the world; changeless in His Promises; His invitation and His Ability to Save All. His message was most challenging to all in attendance. An offering of $41.65 was taken for the expense of the WNAC to be hosted by TWAC in Nashville July 1971.

Announcement was made by Rev. Raper concerning lunch being brought to the educational building by a catering service for those preferring the convenience. Rev. George Lee prayed the benediction for the morning worship and blessings upon the noon meal.

Tuesday Afternoon, November 10, 1970

The afternoon session was opened by singing "At Calvary."

Mrs. Maurine Lee used the 13th chapter of Hebrews as basis for devotional, reminding us many seek security through finances or fame when the true answer is The Lord Jesus, who gives us victory. He is ever the same. The theme chorus was sung again, "Yesterday, Today, Forever."

A report of WNAC which was held in Fresno, California in July 1970 was given by Mrs. Cleo Pursell.

Mrs. Don Ellis reported several items of praise at the Home for Children. The spiritually of the large family, and continued prayer by all is the concern of those directing the Home.

Motion carried to accept report of the Credentials Committee with "local delegates registered" added. (See Committee reports.) The delegates named were seated, and all visitors were welcomed.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and adopted. (See Officers' reports.)

Motion was made and seconded to defer the matter of a Field Worker until next year. Motion carried.

Committee reports were presented and by sustained motions were adopted. (See committee reports.)

The Nominating Committee, composed of Mrs. Myrtle Parrish, Mrs. Dennis Christian, and Mrs. J. B. Smith, was reelected by the body.

Fifteen delegates nominated from the floor to WNAC to be held in Nashville in July 1971 were: Cora Christian, Elsie Staten, Ruth DeArmond, Zula Wolfenbarger, Clara Picirilli, Maurine Lee, Nannie Smith, Edna Harris, Nelle Woolsey, Linda Wright, Mary F. Stanley, Myrtle Reeds, Sylvia Hill, Mrs. Albert Holbrook, and Mrs. Don Lamb.

Motion carried for president to appoint replacements at WNAC, if necessary; and that all delegates be reminded by June 20, 1971 of responsibility of attending WNAC.

Meeting adjourned in prayer by Rev. G. C. Lee to meet at location where State Meeting is to be held.

Stewardship-Prayer Chairman's Report

We live in an age of fear. People are seeking for security. They want something upon which to stand or to cling. Many are seeking this security in the things of the world, only to find that it is not to be found there. Their fears and frustrations are only increased.

The believer in Jesus Christ has the answer to this need. Jesus is the answer. He is the unchanging One in whom we can place our hope and confidence. Yesterday He loved us enough to die for us. Today He lives at the right hand of the Father to intercede and minister on our behalf. We know He will not fail us tomorrow. Therefore, we should pray for wisdom to be good stewards of our mission.

Personal report:

Attended: 1 WNAC, 1 CDWAC, 3 Seasons of Prayer and 4 study courses.
