Proceeding of the 56th Annual Session of the Tennessee Women Active fo Christ Convention

The 56th Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Woman Active for Christ convened November 13, 2001 at the First Free Will Baptist Church, in Mountain City, Tennessee. The convention theme was "For Such A Time As This," with Esther 4:4 as the scripture text.

The following committees were appointed:

Credentials:	Varnell Gorenflo, Roberta Estep, Madge Crain
Registration:	Myrtle Reeds, Bobbie Bailey, Khristi Pugh
Finance:	Jane Bailey, Arlene Farley, Betty Hall
Resolutions/	Mary Walkley, Geneva Walker, Mildred Garland,
Appreciation:	Laura Thigpen, Rebecca Pugh

The morning session was opened with congregational singing.

Prayer was lead by Jane Bailey.

Special music was provided by Mitzi Munsey, Matt Munsey and Andy Ball.

Mitzi Munsey gave the devotion based on Psalm 62:5 & 6.

"My Expectation Is Upon God." Mitzi explained that not only is God, her expectation but He is her Rock and Salvation. As she reflected back over this past year's tragedies, she told of her determination to not be moved, but to constantly depend on God. She encouraged everyone to give your tears to God for His healing and to let God be our Refuge.

Dr. James Kilgore then gave the report for The Family Ministries.

"Why Do We Need You?" First they need our prayers, also our financial support is needed to help keep the work going. There were over 80 decisions for Christ this year. The Hope Center saw 3 choose adoption for their child over abortion. Dr. Kilgore said they needed us like never before because boys and girls need us like never before.

Business Session

President Debbie Mitchell, called the convention to order.

Varnell Gorenflo read the credentials committee's report. Motion, second and carried (MSC) to accept the report and seat the delegates. (See credentials report.) Varnell also gave the secretary's report. It was received as information, (See secretary's report.)

Jane Bailey gave the treasurer's report in the absence of Gladys Gragg. MSC to receive the report. (See treasurer's report.)

Marjorie Workman, Executive Secretary/Treasurer of Women Nationally Active for Christ (WNAC), gave the WNAC report. (See WNAC report.) Jane Bailey gave the field workers' report for the east; Myrtle Reeds gave the report for the middle and Mary Walkley gave the west report for Betty Mutchler. (See field workers' report.) Reporting continued with the following reports: resolutions/appreciation (Rebecca Pugh), registration (Myrtle Reeds), finance (Jane Bailey) The reports were received and voted on. (See reports.) The nominating committee submitted the recommendations for the state officers for 2001 - 2003. (See nominating report.) The delegate sign up sheets for the WNAC convention in Memphis, TN were passed around. Debbie Mitchell was elected to serve on the WNAC nominating committee. The business session was closed with prayer for the newly elected officers and the TWAC work.

Worship Hour

The worship service began at 11:00 a.m. with congregational singing. We were lead in prayer by Arlene Farley. An offering was received for Barbara Gibbs, our morning speaker. Mitzi Munsey, Matt Munsey and Andy Ball provided the special music prior to the speaker. Barbara Gibbs speaking in place of Geneva Poole did a wonderful job explaining how God is blessing their work in France, in spite of all the walls that are still up. She compared the work in France to Joshua' march, the walls are beginning to come down in France just the walls of Jericho came down. Less than 1% of the people in France are christians. The growth of the church is very slow. Barbara expressed their thanks and deep appreciation to all who helped with prayers and financial support for their work.

TWAC Field Workers' Reports

East As Field Worker for East Tennessee, I have written letters to churches in the Union District and other churches in East Tennessee, encouraging the women to become involved in Women Active for Christ. I have especially promoted assisting with hosting the WNAC convention in Memphis and attended the state retreat in October.

I have made some personal contacts to encourage women and auxiliaries. I serve as the Union Association's WAC field worker, the Central Quarterly WAC's secretary/treasurer, and my local's mission study chairman.

I attended the state retreat, Union Association annual meeting, 3 quarterly meetings, 2 Central Quarterly woman's Auxiliary conferences, spoke at one banquet and attended local WAC meetings.

Respectfully submitted, Jane Bailey

West

Greetings from West Tennessee! We have 25 members from 2 churches. We met in the spring for a Mother/Daughter Banquet and raised $300.00 for Memphis 2002. In our fall meeting we enjoyed hearing from Susan Turnbough about their ministry in Spain. We raised $1000.00 for their "van fund". She was accompanied by Lee Edgmon, also in Spain and we gave each a part of our offering.

We have been excited about Memphis 2002 and very involved in preparations. We are looking forward to all of you crossing the state to visit us... which is about 600 miles from Mountain City, depending on how many "circles" you have to make to get to us.

With offerings of $630.00 from 2 churches, we are GRATEFUL for God blessing in and thru the West Tennessee women Active for Christ.

Respectfully submitted, Mary Walkley for Betty Mutchler

Middle

Praise God from whom all blessings flow! This has been a good year. We have raised the $10,000.00 needed for hosting the WNAC 2002. We are thankful for all who helped make this possible.

As your field worker for Middle Tennessee, I have tried to keep each group informed of various happenings thru correspondence. I attended the WNAC convention, the Cumberland District meeting, and the state retreat. The retreat was really a blessing. The Priest Lake ladies have organized a women Active for Christ group. Hopefully they will be uniting with the Cumberland District in the near future.

We are looking forward to seeing many of you at the WNAC convention in Memphis. Be much in prayer for this meeting.

Respectfully submitted, Myrtle Reeds

WNAC Report

Marjorie Workman, WNAC Executive Secretary/Treasurer gave the WNAC report.

WNAC has awarded 3, $1000.00 scholarships in 2001.

The TWAC will be helping the Master's Men with the Marriage Enrichment Retreat to be held at Smoky Shadows, in Pigeon Forge, Tennessee in early spring.

There was $92,000.00 given to the Provision Closet, according to Marjorie this is a record. That is great, that we gave so generously in this area but at the same time we have dropped off in our giving to WNAC and to other departments. We need to encourage our ladies to join WNAC to help meet the expenses and also receive a great blessing from doing God's work. Tennessee had a loss of 77 members in 2001.

Marjorie gave a review of several books that are available to purchase from WNAC.

Guidelines Used By TWAC Nominating Committee

General Provisions for the Committee

Members of the nominating committee are elected by the state convention to serve one year. (The nominating committee shall be composed of members who are delegates nominated from the floor and elected by the body at its annual meeting.)

The president of the Convention will serve as an ex-officio member of the nominating committee. The committee must meet and send a proposed slate of officers to the TWAC president by September 30.

General Considerations for Presenting Names to the Committee

In addition to the qualifications and duties listed in the Constitution for TWAC officers, the nominating committee members should consider the following:

Consider as many different areas of the state as possible in electing officers. Of course it is impossible for every local auxiliary to be represented by a state officer, but sections of the state should be considered. Consider the person's qualifications and participation in Woman's Auxiliary.

As a name is presented to the committee for nomination, a list of qualifications and participation in local, district and state auxiliary work should be presented.

Particular Considerations for Selecting Officers

The nominating committee should consider the following when approving nominees for the slate of officers.

Any person nominated for a state office should be:

- 1 Active in local and district auxiliary work
- 2 Willing and able to attend district and state conventions, executive committee meetings, workshops and retreats.
- 3 Able to communicate effectively.
- 4 Prepared to plan, evaluate and interpret the TWAC program to others.
- 5 Poised, able to accept criticism, utilize it and keep on working.
- 6 Flexible, willing to change, grow and improve.
- 7 Tolerant, respecting the opinions of others and being aware of the diversity among us.

We, your Resolution & Appreciation Committee, wish to recommend the following:
