Lloyd Light and the good old song, "Amazing Grace." The Moderator then presented Rev. E. M. French, pastor of the Harris Memorial church who read devotionally from the Exodus and then from Romans 8:1-14. The audience was then favored with a special message in song—"Victory in Jesus." The subject of Rev. French's message was "Victory for the Free Will Baptist through Jesus Christ". This was a great message well prepared and well delivered to the pleasure and inspiration of all present.

At luncheon time the audience enjoyed a luscious meal served by the women of the church and community from the basement of the church.

Wednesday Afternoon

Beginning promptly at 1:30 o'clock Brother I. L. Stanley led the audience in a special service of song and praise with such favorite numbers as "Have Thine Own Way," "It Is Well with My Soul" and others. The prayer was prayed by Rev. M. L. Bowman, pastor of the Greeneville church.

Time was given at this junction for a report of the Executive-Secretary which see.

Report of Executive-Secretary

The present session of our association marks the close of the most successful year in the history of the denomination in East Tennessee. Seventy-eight years ago our forefathers organized the Union Association in a small framed church edifice which stood at the end of the walk leading to this building in which we meet today. The little building which served as the cradle of the Association is still a pleasant memory to your Executive-Secretary. A lot of water has passed under the bridge since that memorable day. All of the saints of that very memorable occasion have long since gone to be with the Lord. It is commendable that a very faithful few have, through the years, kept the lamp of progress burning and today we have grown into an association of sixty-four churches with a membership of upwards of 6,000 members and possessing a half million dollars worth of property of various kinds. This progress is not to be made a thing of boasting, but rather to be the object of our thanksgiving and praise to Him who has made this possible.

In the face of all this material progress, we deplore that all is not well in our work. Some disunion exists within a few churches. Perhaps this is to be expected. In spite of any friction the revival spirit is dominant in much of the work. Souls are being saved and churches are enjoying the blessings of the "latter rains."

Notwithstanding the fact that I was directed to conduct the work of the past year mostly by correspondence, the work has been so exacting, and especially during the Vacation Bible School period of the summer months, that I have had to travel extensively in promotional work. This work has paid off abundantly as my financial and statistical report will show.

I have received very little compensation to date for my services. I have been so anxious for the success of our Twelve Point Program, that I have used only enough for my expenses to date. We hope that sufficient funds will be left over when all expenses of the year are met to compensate further for this service.

We would like to submit the following recommendation to this session of the association:

First, that this body urge more churches to participate in the work of the Twelve Point Program and that all churches pay the per capita amount as per membership. Every department of our work can be abundantly supported by this cooperation.

Second, that the Executive-Secretary be authorized to conduct Teachers' Training Courses for the benefits of our weaker churches in preparation of DVBS workers. These courses to be conducted before time for such schools in the summer. The expenses of the courses are to be paid from the regular funds.

Third, that all pastors be asked to keep the program of the association before their audiences and that room be made on all Quarterly Meeting programs for presentation of this work.

Fourth, that each church conduct a Rally-Day program once each year for the boosting of the entire program—missions, education, superannuation and all other phases of the work and that competent speakers be invited to stress this work.

I would be an ingrate if I did not express my sincerest thanks for the confidence reposed in me in promoting this worthy work. I have done the best possible under the conditions. I also wish to thank those of you who have worked so untiringly with me in this denominational enterprise and may the good Lord prosper each of you in the coming year is my prayer in His name.

Moderator's Message

To the delegates, members and friends of the Seventy-Seventh Annual Session of the Union Free Will Baptist Association:

Another year has come and gone. Since last we met at the Erwin church one year ago many opportunities have come and gone. Many of these opportunities we have made use of but some have been allowed to slip by unheeded by us.

In reviewing the past year, we are reminded that the Lord has showered many of His blessings upon us, both spiritual and material. Perhaps our greatest accomplishment has been at our Home for Children under the direction of Brother I. L. Stanley. While the majority of our churches are supporting the Twelve Point Program, there are some which are not. Let us not be satisfied until each church has done her part in this worthy work.

Let us look forward with anxious hearts to the coming fellowship and inspiration of this present session of our association, and as we return to our various fields of labor may we keep this Scripture in our hearts: "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."

Jesse R. Curtis, Moderator

On motion the association voted to pay the sum of twenty dollars per month to all subjects of superannuation who have been approved by the Board.

On motion any minister who belongs to the Ministers' Conference at the time of creation of the superannuation program is a subject of the Board.

Report of Superannuation Board

Your Superannuation Board recommend that Brother D. A. Bright be dropped from the list and that Brother W. H. H. Morelock be paid $15.00 per month and that Brother J. Q. Adams and Brother W. C. Waycaster be added at the same amount.

The question is: are we going to continue to make the financial status the basis of our retirement and compensation, or are all alike to be paid upon retirement? This would not be necessary if all churches would cooperate in the Twelve Point Program, and we feel that this should be made mandatory upon all churches.

Here are some suggested eligibility requirements:

1. Membership in the Ministers' Conference of five years.
2. Having reached the age of sixty-five—to be optional with the minister.
3. Having reached the age of seventy-five—full pay, with or without retirement.
4. Upon evidence of total and permanent disability regardless of age if a member five years.

Adjourned to meet Thursday morning at 9:00 o'clock.

Evening worship began at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. Lee Painter directing the Junior Choir of the local church. Several very inspirational numbers were rendered which put the audience into a worshipful mood. The pastor then presented Rev. E. F. Drayne, pastor of the New Liberty church in Carter County who read for his lesson Hebrews 5:1-16. He used as a text the first verse. The subject was the "Be's" of the Bible. A good message. By special request the Junior choir sang some additional numbers which were thoroughly enjoyed.

Thursday Morning

The Thursday morning session was called to order promptly at 9:00 o'clock by the Moderator and Brother I. L. Stanley directed the song service with Mrs. Theda Vinson at the piano. Rev. Joe A. Brown of Afton, Tennessee had charge of the devotion reading from 2 Timothy 2:1-15 and offering the morning prayer.

The first report of the Statistician not being complete, he was allowed to add the missing pages.

Committee Reports

The following committees read their reports and they were adopted as read:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON APPRECIATION—

We extend our deepest appreciation to the local church and Pastor for the hearty welcome which has been extended to the Ministers, Deacons, Delegates and Visitors composing the present session and for the wonderful food and fellowship which has been offered for our entertainment.

We desire, also, to thank the Officers, Ministers, Deacons and delegates for their splendid cooperation in working together in such harmony to make this the Seventy-Seventh Annual Session one of the most successful and pleasant of all history.

Edgar J. Colman, Chairman
Walter Blankenship
Earnest Carmichael

THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE REPORTED:

Seeing the dire and ever increasing traffic in liquor, wine and beer and realizing its dreadful consequences among the people and especially the youth of our day, we feel that neither time, effort nor money should be spared in our efforts to cope with this terrible menace. The pulpit and the pew alike should cry aloud against the use of strong drink, and refuse to vote for it in any way, or for those who sympathize with it and we should not patronize any place of business which sells it.

J. C. Biddle, Chairman
H. D. Bailey
John Harris

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LITERATURE AND PUBLICATION:

Seeing the tremendous increase in Juvenile Delinquency, we recommend an increased study of the Bible and its being taught in the home. We should exercise great care in the choice of the literature used in our Sunday Schools, Leagues and Daily Vacation Bible Schools to see that they are the best to be had. More than ever before, we should use the greatest care in providing proper reading material for children of our homes. "Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Proverbs 22:6.

Mrs. Lee Horne, Chairman
Mrs. Henry Anders
Mrs. Thurman Pate

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS—

The great commission commands us to preach the Gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth. All cannot go to preach but can send prayers and money to help those who have gone. We urge every member of every church to pray daily for our missionaries, and to support our Twelve Point Program which, in turn, sponsors the whole Mission Program. We also urge every member to bring all his tithes into the Store House of God that all our work may be promoted, both at home and abroad.

Mrs. L. W. Vinson, Chairman

Mrs. John McLean

Mrs. Etta Price

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION—

We recognize the fact that we are living in a day of great achievement in the field of literal education. Realizing that we are confronted with the problem of making ourselves equal to the task of giving to our young people such Christian Training as needed to give them for Christian Service.

To meet this challenge, we recommend that each church within the association sponsor a Daily Vacation Bible School.

We also recommend that each pastor make an effort to see that his Sunday School teachers are trained and qualified both literally and spiritually.

We further recommend that each pastor promote a teacher training course each year.

E. M. French, Chairman

Jewel Dunbar

M. L. Bowman

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NEXT SESSION—

We appreciate the invitation from various churches for next years meeting, but in view of the fact that the New Liberty church has not entertained the association for some time, we recommend this church as the next meeting place.

I. L. Stanley, Chairman

Report of committee on Necrology, see memorial page.

At 10:15 I. L. Stanley was presented and he gave a very concise report of the work being done at the Home for Children. This was followed by a very lovely program presented by sixteen of the children from the Home. The program provided a wonderful spiritual uplift and resulted in an offering of $115.00 for the support of the Home.

The business session then stood adjourned.

11:00 o'clock brought up worship time. Stanley led the audience in singing "I Need Jesus" and Rev. Herman Christian led the prayer. The moderator presented Rev. J. C. Howington who read devotionally from Titus I and used the first verse as a text. A great message.

The fellowship was great at noon as the crowd enjoyed another of those luscious meals served from the basement of the church.

Thursday afternoon was given over to the Woman's Auxiliary work.

Thursday Evening

After several numbers by the Junior Choir of the local church and a very fervent prayer by Jesse Laws the Junior Choir sang by request "The Stone That Came Rolling Down" which sparked the service to an evangelistic fervor. The local pastor then presented Rev. W. L. Gilton, pastor of the Central church of Johnson City. After reading devotionally from Matt. 5:1-12 and a moment of meditation and prayer he announced his text from Jer. 9:2 and the subject was "The Lure of the Wilderness." This was the prelude to an interesting consecration service in which the Ordaining Council of the Ministers' Conference ordained Edgar J. Colman, Wiley Vaughn, J. C. Biddle, Thomas W. Golston and Raymond Frye to the Gospel Ministry by prayer and the imposition of hands. Rev. J. S. Burgess, Chairman led in the service, Rev. J. C. Howington led the prayer and Rev. H. W. Morelock gave the charge. Those ordained received certificates of ordination as did W. M. James who came from the Towe River Association and a certificate of license to H. D. Bailey. The closing prayer was prayed by James Copp, deacon of Johnson City.

Friday Morning

Called to order at 9:00 o'clock. The song service was conducted by Howington with Patsy Parsons at the piano. Rev. Weldon Bowman, pastor of the Wautaga Valley church, read from 2 Cor. 4:1. H. D. Bailey prayed the prayer.

Roe Smith, minister and Isaac Nidiffer, deacon were enrolled.

Rev. Virgil Ray, a minister from the Jack's Creek association in North Carolina was recognized and seated.

The report of the committee on Resolutions was referred back to the committee for revision.

On motion by O. P. Stokes and seconded by J. R. Dunbar the Superannuation Board is asked to formulate a definite plan for the compensation of retired ministers and report next year. (Report of Superannuation Board.)

A report of the work done by the General Board was read and adopted. (Note: the report was not filed with the Secretary for publication.)

A motion was sustained to elect officers for the ensuing year.

J. R. Dunbar was unanimously elected as Moderator and Jesse R. Curtis as Assistant.

The Executive Board of last year was re-elected unanimously, Rev. W. L.

Gilton then resigned from the Executive Board and E. F. Drayne was elected in his stead.

Rev. T. F. Lewis was elected to preach the conference sermon next year.

The assistant Secretary is made permanent with the Secretary.

George D. Dunbar was re-elected as Executive-Secretary without opposition.

Delegates to the State Association are Mrs. Thurman Pate, Jewel Dunbar, Blanche Howington, Mrs. Henry Anders and I. L. Stanley with J. R. Dunbar Alternate.

The business having been finished a motion was sustained to adjourn to meet with the church at New Liberty on Wednesday before the Third Sunday in August 1951 at 10:00 o'clock. Thus ended the best year in the history of the Union Association.
