REPORT SECTION

UNION DISTRICT WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Union Association Woman's Auxiliary was called to order by President Pearl Morgan on Wednesday August 14, 1991. President Morgan admonished the ladies to do our part in the Lord's work.

Devotions were presented by Karen Cowart of the Western Quarter. She invited us to "Be ADDICTED to the Ministry of the Saints." Her scripture references included I Cor. 16:15, Eph. 4:11, 12, and John 13:35.

Gail Fender, LaCrecian McFaddin and Herman McFaddin sang for us "I will Meet You in the Morning" before we proceeded with the business of recognizing and seating our delegages. Visitors were also given a hearty welcome. The various committees were then appointed by President Morgan.

The ladies of Shady Grove caused us all to take a closer look at ourselves as they performed a wonderful skit called "The Mother of the Year." I am sure we will all be reminded of this skit the next time we offer our children a naice warm popover for breakfast.

Winona Riggs then gave us a message from the Stanley's as she had recently seen them in Mississippi.

After the congregation sang "One Day" Mitzi Munsey brought us missionary highlights. Mitzi held her audience transfixed as she recounted experiences from her past 11 years on the mission field in Mexico. Her central theme was "Looking Unto Jesus." She gave several instances of "Looking Unto Jesus" in her own life. These ranged from seeing churches planted to the miracles she has seen the Lord work in the life of Baby Rachel. At the end of her testimony she answered questions from the audience.

The meeting was then recessed for committee meetings.

After being joined by the men for the late morning session Winona Riggs led the opening prayer.

President Morgan called on Rev. James Munsey to introduce the three visitors he brought from Mexico.

Felix Zuniga

Hilerlin Gonzalez

Isidro Agueleria

They along with James presented us with two wonderful songs (in Spanish of course). James then brought a challenging message from Nehemiah chapter 1 "The Work is Hard."

An offering was taken and the meeting recessed for lunch.

The afternoon session was opened and devotions brought by Vickie Hood from Prov. 31:11-12. The TWAC report was given by Jane Bailey. Jane urged us all to attend the Woman's Auxiliary State Retreat in Memphis this October and then the State Association at Donelson in November.

Reports from the earlier appointed committees were then submitted. Officers for the next two years were elected. Delegates were appointed for the state association. The meeting was adjourned by President Pearl Morgan.

PROMOTIONAL SECRETARY REPORT

The Lord of Glory is coming again. Let us send workers into the vineyard, while it is still day, before night comes when no man can work.

This has been a good year for the Union Association of Free Will Baptists. There was some of the best quarterly meetings this year that I have had the privilege of attending and for this we say "Praise God."

I have attended 14 quarterly meetings this year. I missed one due to death in the family, and scheduled conflict with master's men conference in April. I attended the General Board meeting in Morristown. Promotion of all types has been given out and information of our beloved Free Will Baptist has been made available. I have served as proxy for our state promotion secretary, Rev. Raymond Riggs.

May I suggest that we each keep on, keeping on until the Lord of Glory returns or calls us home.

HOME MISSION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Union Association last year voted to pay Bro. Gerald Fender $100.00 a month for the purpose to buy land to build a new church in West Knoxville. The land has been purchased and as soon as we get the land payed for they will start building the c church. At the last quarterly meeting I was invormed by Bro. Pate that the Home Missions Board's treasury was so low that we couldn't pay Bro. Fender $100.00 per month so he would pay him ever two months. I was informed by Bro. Pate that as of right now it is paid up to date. Please support the Home Mission Board so we can get our treasury built back up to where we can use the money for the glory of God.

MASTER'S MEN REPORT

This is our tenth year as the Tennessee State Masters Men. We have added three new chapters in the Union Association this year, Shady Grove, Bethany, and Sweetwater.

Work day at the Bible College was in September. We painted rooms, halls, glazed window and cleaned up area. Layman spring revival was conducted at Newport First, where Rev. David Kemper is pastor. We had Master's Men breakfast at our state association in Dickenson. Midfield church in Kingsport, was awarded the plaque for most active church. Work-shops was set up, and conducted. Several churches was visited for the cause of Master's Men. Some of our men went to Cuba in February. We are so thankful for them. There will be other places of service that our men can help in. I would not forget the Master's hands building crew. Praise God for men like these. Just think what the Free Will Baptist could do if we could activate, motivate our men, we already have. I am proud to be part of the Tennessee State Master's Men.

LICENSING AND ORDINATION PROCEEDURES

PREFACE

In order to promote a ministerial fellowship of dedicated, honorable, godly, and studious men to safeguard the honor and integrity of its members and to provide devoted and qualified ministers to serve our churches, we the members of the Union Minister's Conference do hereby adopt the following procedures and rules governing the license and ordination of candidates for the ministry:

I DUTIES OF THE LOCAL CHURCH

1. The Ministerial Candidate.

It is a cause for great rejoicing when a local church has one of its sons called into the ministry of the gospel of Christ. Therefore, the church as a body must consider it to be its special business to assure the success of one who is so called. Awesome responsibilities for his training and development lies upon them. The encouragement and council of the pastor is also important in making him a great preacher. When they are assured of the validity of the candidates call, he is to be recommended by letter to the Quarterly Meeting of which the church is a member for a license to preach. The following requirements apply:

A. He must have been a member of the church recommending him for one year.

B. His personal life shall conform to the standards established in I Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-9.

C. Upon receiving a license to preach his ministerial activity comes under the watch care of the Quarterly Minister's Conference through its License Council.

D. The licensed minister is required to report by letter to the Quarterly and Annual Meetings and to attend them when possible.

2. The Ordained Minister from a Sister Free Will Baptist Association.

When a Minister, or a pastor elect from a sister association unites with a local church, it is advisable that they unite also with the Minister's Conference of the Quarterly Meeting.

A. The church of which he is a member shall provide a letter recommending him to the Quarterly Meeting.

B. He must present a letter in good standing from the association of which he was a member.

C. He is required to report by letter to the quarterly and annual meetings and to attend them when possible.

3. The local church, when possible, should call their pastors from the ranks of the Free Will Ministers who are in good standing with an association recognized by and in fellowship with the National Association of Free Will Baptists. However, if it becomes prudent to select a pastor who has been in another church or denomination, he should be examined by the local church as to the soundness of his faith and beliefs. It then becomes their duty to recommend him by letter to the Quarterly Meeting License Council for exchange of credentials. He should be informed of his responsibility to report to the Quarterly and Annual Meetings by letter and in person in order to maintain good standing in the Minister's Conference.

4. The Local Church and the Disciplining of a Minister.

The local church may discipline an ordained or licensed minister with respect to his status as a member in good standing of the local church. However, they cannot nullify his standing in the Minister's Conference nor his status as a minister. Only the councils to which they are subject may alter their standing as Ministers. Said councils should take cognizance of ministers disciplined by local churches and take action accordingly.

DUTIES OF THE LICENSE COUNCIL

1. MINISTERS TO BE LICENSED: The License Council of the Quarterly Meeting shall examine all candidates who appear before it from time to time as to their Christian experience, faithfulness to Christ and the church, character, honesty, sincerity, and their divine call to the ministry. A license to preach is granted subject to annual renewal. A newly licensed minister is required to hold a license for at least two years before being considered for ordination. License ministers shall appear before the License Council at each anniversary of his license to renew them until he is ordained. To obtain a license one must:

- B. Show convincing evidence of a divine call to preach, a desire for christian growth and maturity, and an aptitude for serious study and sermon preparation.
- C. Possess personal character and conduct conforming to the qualifications mentioned in I Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-9.
- D. Express a willingness to complete the courses of study required by the Minister's Conference.

2. MINISTERS WITH CREDENTIALS TO BE RATIFIED: Ordained Free Will Baptist Ministers from sister associations who wish to become members of the Minister's Conference shall first unite with a local church within our associational fellowship. To be considered he shall:

- B. Have a letter of good standing from the association where his last membership was held.
- C. Be instructed as to his responsibility to make regular reports of his work in writing to the Quarterly and Annual Meetings and to attend and participate when possible.

3. MINISTERS FOR EXCHANGE OF CREDENTIALS: Ordained ministers from other church bodies or denominations may be received into the fellowship of the Minister's conference subject to the following rules:

- A. He must unite with a local church which has membership in the Union Association.
 - B. He shall present a letter from the church of which he is a member, recommending him to fellowship in the Conference.
 - C. He must have been a member of the church recommending him for at least one year prior to being considered by the License Council.
 - D. He shall assure the License Council of his regeneration experience, faithfulness to Christ and the church. Christian character, honesty, sincerity and his divine call to the ministry. His personal life and conduct shall reveal a desire for christian growth and maturity, aptitude for serious study and sermon preparation, and shall meet the qualifications of the Holy Scriptures as mentioned in I Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-9.
 - E. He shall be instructed as to his responsibility to make regular reports of his work to the Quarterly and Annual Meetings and to attend when possible.
4. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE LICENSE COUNCIL TO THE ORDAINING COUNCIL: The License Council shall submit an annual report to the Ordaining Council of all its work performed within the conference year as follows:
- A. A list of all candidates examined and the resulting action taken.
 - B. A current report of all ministers who are in good standing.
 - C. A report of all ministers who are not in good standing, stating the reasons for this condition.
 - D. A list of all ministers recommended for ordination, ratification of credentials and exchange of credentials.
 - E. A list of all ministers who are excused from reporting.
 - F. The report must be in the hands of the Secretary of the Ordaining Council no later than Monday Morning of the week of the Associational Annual Meeting.

The License Council shall inform those whom it recommends to the Ordaining Council for any reason of the time and place of the meeting. The regular annual meeting of the Ordaining Council will take place on Tuesday morning 9:00 a.m. at the same location where the Annual Meeting is to be held for that year. This is for the purpose of interviewing those who are to be considered for membership in the Minister's Conference, that is:

- (1) Licensed ministers who are to be ordained.
- (2) Ordained ministers whose credentials are to be ratified.
- (3) Ordained ministers from other churches or denominations whose credentials are to be exchanged.

One member from each License Council is invited to participate with the Ordaining Council during their interviews, but will not have voting powers in their decisions.

DUTIES OF INDIVIDUAL MINISTER'S

1. Men who are called of God to a public preaching ministry and who aspire to be licensed as a Free Will Baptist should announce his calling to his local church. He would be well advised to seek help and instruction from his pastor who will acquaint him with the proceedings established by the Quarterly Meeting. At the appropriate time the church will furnish him with a letter of recommendation to the Quarterly Meeting and inform him of the time and place to meet with the License Council.

2. Licensed ministers who aspire to be ordained to the Gospel Ministry must obtain a letter of recommendation to the Quarterly Meeting from the church of which he is a member. He shall then meet with the License Council at the specified time and place for examination and instruction. License Councils are forbidden to recommend those to the Ordaining Council who:

A. Have not completed the required courses of study.

B. Have not served for at least two years under license.

C. Does not maintain a card of good standing within the Minister's Conference.

D. Has been married more than one time and whose former wife is still living.

E. Has married a woman whose former husband is still living.

F. Fails or refuses to appear before the Ordaining Council at the specified time and place (on Tuesday morning at 9:00 a.m. on the week of, and at the same location as the Annual Association Meeting.)

The License Council may refuse to recommend a candidate for ordination for any reason it deems appropriate, or they may ask a person to serve another year under license. All such decisions are entirely their responsibility. One may freely express their disappointment at such a decision, however, a spirit of vindictiveness or contempt will not be tolerated.

3. THE MINISTER'S CONFERENCE AND ITS ORDAINING COUNCIL

1. PURPOSE: The purpose of the Minister's Conference is to enjoin a brotherhood of equals of like precious faith whose moral integrity, ethical standards and spiritual qualities equip them to serve as pastors, evangelists and spiritual leaders of associational churches. The maintenance of these characteristics are mandatory in order that churches may safely call men from its ranks to serve them.
2. DISCIPLINE: All certificates of ordination are deemed to be the property of the Minister's Conference and are held in trust by the several participating ministers during the maintenance of sound doctrine, Christian character and good conduct. All credentials are subject to recall by the Minister's Conference who through its Ordaining Council may call for them at its discretion. All members are expected to comply when questions of discipline arise and a vindictive spirit nor an attitude of contempt toward the Council will not be tolerated. Any such action by the Council must be reviewed and ratified by the Minister's Conference in its annual session or a special session may be called for the purpose. Members rights are freely protected in accordance with the TREATISE OF FAITH AND PRACTICES OF FREE WILL BAPTISTS."
3. RESPONSIBILITY: Each member of the Minister's Conference is enjoined to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, to uphold and strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, to promote the success of the cause of Christ and the gospel.
