REPORT OF THE PROMOTIONAL OFFICE

REPORT OF THE PROMOTIONAL DIRECTOR 78TH ANNUAL VIRGINIA ASSOCIATION OF FREE WILL BAPTISTS JUNE 17, 2016

GENERAL STATE OF AFFAIRS:

The work of the promotional office for 2015-2016 has been an encouraging one in areas of ministry. More and more we receive contact for information and help, and pastors as well as congregational members show appreciation for this ministry in so many different ways. The increasing fellowship being realized across the state speaks of a growing unity of heart and purpose among us as Virginia Free Will Baptists.

A number of churches held GRACE Outreach Revivals this year and incorporated the program to help manage their evangelistic outreach. Encouraging comments are coming back from both pastors and church members of their excitement about advancing their church's gospel outreach and increasing the number of people involved in evangelism. The online version of the management program is still in development and will hopefully be ready soon. Admittedly, the financial need of the promotional office during this year began to take precedence and concentration of time.

As shown in the treasurer's report, the promotional office continues to lag behind in support for a continuing full-time status. In the first three quarters of our 2015-2016 fiscal year, the office received only 58% of needed operational funds. With our push for help since February, churches and conferences responded generously by helping the promotional office finish the year with 74% of needed budget funds—our best giving year to date (64% the first year and 72% the second year). I cannot express my level of gratitude for all who have responded to this financial need but also to this needed ministry.

SPECIFIC FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING:

On the adjoining pages, Chart 1 shows Support from Church Budgets or Special Offerings, and Chart 2 shows the Breakdown of All Promotional Office Income.

OBSERVATIONS DERIVED FROM THE CHARTS:

At the beginning of the full-time promotional office three years ago, I promoted raising half of our needed funds from church budgets, equaling approximately $35,000.00. As seen in Chart 2, when the monies are combined from church budgets and association offerings/budgets, the state has raised over that amount. The first goal is being reached. The shortfall lies, however, in the area of individual, monthly support—our Fast-Snackers. We have faithful supporters, just not enough. We had hoped to raise the second half of the promotional office budget from this demographic, but Chart 2 reveals monthly support in this area is half of what we had hoped. This leaves us with the nearly $20,000.00 shortfall for the promotional office budget.

CONSIDERATIONS FOR THE FUTURE:

Obviously, we need to find a means of raising the needed funds. The question is, "How do we make up this shortfall?" More individuals could get involved in the Fast-Snacker program; however, after three years of its promotion, it is unlikely the answer will be found here completely. Therefore, finding a funding solution is what I have been avidly working on for the past two months. During this time, I have met with the executive and missions board members individually and collectively presenting a potential means of new revenue for the office. However, we still need a little more time to flesh out the details. It is my expectation as well as that of the boards to share all the details by mid-August.

Please know that Debbie and I love you and are committed to the Virginia promotional office and its ministry. We want to honor the trust and investment you have placed in us and to please the Lord for the grace He has given us. Pray with us as we continue to move forward for Christ and Virginia Free Will Baptists.

D. Bruce Barnes, Promotional Director

REPORT OF HOME MISSION BOARD

VIRGINIA HOME MISSION BOARD REPORT

To the Virginia State Meeting

June 15, 2016

This has been a very exciting year for the VAHMB and we believe 2017 is going to be even more so.

Collins

The work in Harrisonburg is continuing to grow. In 2013 the National Home Missions Board unfortunately released the church from its watch-care we believe too early. Since that time we have undertaken its support 100% to be sure we have a firmly grounded self-sustaining work. Paul Collins has done an outstanding job and has stayed the long hard course. They have seen 11 conversions this year alone and are having a weekly attendance for around 65 for Sunday morning worship. We had hoped to see this church be self-supporting this year but circumstances have pushed that prospect just a little longer. We are encouraging the Brother Paul to work diligently to move from Mission status by the end of 2016.

Cueva

The Hispanic work continues to flourish in Northern Virginia. Diego Cueva has consistently proven to be a hard worker and tremendous soul-winner. The work in Woodbridge continues to grow and is now up another 20% from about 50% + supporting its ministries to 70%. Diego has faced over the last 4-6 months people have been influenced by strong Calvinist teachings around them. They lost 5 families because of these pressures of that community. Although he has dropped from around 160 to 115-120 is the average attendance-the church is still having a tremendous influence in the community. Also, Diego continues to be a huge influence in reaching those who go out from his work and minister. Because of his efforts there is now a church in Arlington, VA meeting at the Lyon Park FWB Church which is running around 50 people and a FWB Church El Salvador that's running over 100 people.

Weaver

The work in Winchester is well underway. Jason and Holley have a new baby and most of us realize this is a great way to grow a church. They have faced some medical issues this past year but God has used the Doctors at UVA Charlottesville and she is doing great. Jason has been renting space to this point but is now in the process of buying some land. He is now in the final stages of having the proper test done on the land and will soon be looking to get actual estimates on a new building.

Marc Nepp

Marc is well underway and working extremely hard toward establishing a church again in the city of Portsmouth. He has recruited some spectacular help and I believe we will very soon be hearing of great things happening there. Marc has seen 29 professions of faith, 261 first time guest and is seeing an average attendance of 135. He is leading the church to have one community event every 90 days, two special events every 90 days (meal, baby dedication, etc.). Some of the challenges he is facing and will be facing is dealing with the City Council as they move toward finding a more permanent home, although their present place of worship is working nicely. Small groups have begun, in teaching, instructing and discipling while building a fellowship. He has been able to build a church body that is multiethnic and very much in line with what is needed in the Portsmouth area.

David Osborne

David is working to plant a church in the Wytheville area. He is currently averaging around 21 in his Sunday morning services and since March has seen an average of 8 first-time visitors each month. He is working at maintaining and training his core which he calls the Faith Family. This involves around 5 families. Faith Church is now meeting in the K-Mart shopping plaza and is currently conducting 3 services each week. He is anticipating having his associate Adam Garrett, who is now on itinerant, join the work by the end of this year. If

REPORTS

REPORT OF HOME MISSION BOARD (cont'd)

David gives you a call please allow him to come to your church and try to find a way to support the important work he is doing in planting a church in southwest Virginia.

Marshal Boney'

Marshal is our newest addition to Virginia's ministry outreach. He has been the Associate at Virginia Beach FWB Church for many years and is now planting a work a little further south. He began with 15 and is now running 45 although he has not officially started. He is looking to launch in January 2017. Presently he is using Princess Ann Middle School auditorium and it has worked extremely well for them. They recently had their first first-time visitor and the people were beside themselves with excitement. Marshall is still on itinerate and looks forward to being in your church with you to share his vision. As I've heard from several of the Church Planters, they suffer frustration with a lack of call-backs from pastors. Presently he is building a core leaders team preparing for the launch in January. This coming Saturday they are sponsoring a Community free car wash and giving out a free electronic bible.

Graciously Submitted.

CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

We, the Free Will Baptist Churches and Local Associations of the State of Virginia, being saved by grace through faith in the blood of Jesus Christ, submitting to the total authority of the Bible as God's Word, and realizing the necessity of a bond of fellowship among us, do, therefore, adopt this Constitution to the glory and honor of God and for the advancement of His Kingdom on earth.

ARTICLE I. Name, Purpose, and Affiliation

Section A. This association shall be known as the Virginia State Association of Free Will Baptists, Inc.

Section B. This association is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Revenue Law). Such purposes include, but are not limited to the establishment and maintenance of religious worship, and the building, maintenance and operation of churches, schools, chapel, radio stations, television stations, rescue missions, print shops, day-care centers, camps, and nursing homes.

Section C. This association shall voluntarily affiliate with the National Association of Free Will Baptists according to the provisions in its treatise and shall support all phases of the denomination's work as much as possible. This being a voluntary affiliation, this association submits to no veto or dictatorial power, and this affiliation can be discontinued at any time.

Section D. This association may correspond by letter or otherwise with other Bible believing bodies.

ARTICLE II. Statement of Faith

Section A. The Virginia State Association of Free Will Baptists has adopted
A Treatise of Faith and Practices of the National Association of Free Will Baptists.

Section B. Human Sexuality

1. We believe that God has commanded that no intimate sexual activity be engaged in outside of a marriage between a man and a woman. We believe that all forms of homosexuality, lesbianism, bisexuality, bestiality, incest, fornication, adultery, and pornography are sinful perversions of God's gift of sex. Any officer or employee of the association becoming pregnant or causing pregnancy as a result of consensual intercourse, outside of the marriage relationship, shall be terminated from their position. We will not knowingly commission, license, ordain, hire, or countenance any of these lifestyles or practices. Any member association condoning or promoting such practices as stated above will be dismissed from this body (Genesis 2:24; Genesis 19:5,13; Genesis 26:8,9; Leviticus 18:1-30; Romans 1:26-29; 1 Corinthians 5:1; 6:9; 1 Thessalonians 4:1-8; Hebrews 13:4).
2. We believe that the only legitimate marriage is the joining of one man and one woman (Genesis 2:24; Romans 7:2; 1 Corinthians 7:10; Ephesians 5:22-23).
3. We believe that men and women are spiritually equal in position before God but that God has ordained distinct and separate spiritual functions for men and women in the home and the church. The husband is to be the leader of the home and men are to be the leaders (all ministers and deacons) of the church (Galatians 3:28; Colossians 3:18; 1 Timothy 2:8,15; 3:4,5,12).

Section C. Authority Of Statement Of Faith

The Statement of Faith as recorded in A Treatise of the Faith and Practices of Free Will Baptists or in this document does not exhaust the extent of our faith. The Bible itself is the sole and final source of all that we believe. We do believe, however, that the foregoing statement of faith and this document accurately represents the teaching of the Bible and, therefore, is binding upon all members.

The association may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, including all appeals (other than an action by or in the right of the association) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a moderator, assistant moderator, officer, employee, or agent of the association, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding; and if that person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner that he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section B. Expenses Subject To Indemnification

Section C. Limitations of Indemnification

Any indemnification made under this Article, may be made by the association only as authorized in the specific case of a determination that indemnification of the moderator, assistant moderator, officer, employee, or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section A of this Article. The determination shall be made (a) by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of the members of Executive Board who were not and are not parties to, or threatened with, the action, suit, or proceeding; (b) if the described quorum is not obtainable, or if a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested Executive Board members so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or (c) by a majority vote of the members of the association.

Section D. Timing of Indemnification

Expenses of each person seeking indemnification under this Article, may be paid by the association as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, as authorized by the Executive Board in the specific case, on receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the moderator, assistant moderator, officer, employee, or agent to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not qualified to be indemnified by the association.

Section E. Extent of Indemnification

The indemnification provided by this Article shall be deemed to be discretionary unless otherwise required as a matter of law or under any agreement or provided by insurance purchased by the association, both as to action of each person seeking indemnification under the Article in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding that office, and may continue as to a person who has ceased to be a moderator, assistant moderator, officer, employee, or agent and may inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of that person.

Section F. Insurance

The association may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a moderator, assistant moderator, officer, employee, or agent of the association against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in that capacity, or arising out of his status in that capacity, whether or not the association would have the power to indemnify him against liability under the provisions of this article. Such insurance will be purchased when deemed necessary by the body.

In the event of any dispute, claim, question, or disagreement arising out of or relating to this Constitution or any other associational matter, the parties shall use their best efforts to settle such disputes, claims, questions, or disagreement as befits Christians. To this effect, they shall consult and negotiate with each other in good faith and, recognizing their mutual interests not disgrace the name of Christ, seek to reach a just and equitable solution. If they do not reach such solution within a period of sixty (60) days, then upon notice by either party to the other, disputes, claims, questions, or differences shall be finally settled by arbitration as described in Section 1, above, and such Procedures for Arbitration as are adopted pursuant to the following two sections.

Section C. Limitations on Arbitration Decisions

Should any dispute involve matters of associational discipline, the arbitrators shall be limited to determining whether the procedures for associational discipline as outlined under this Constitution were followed.
