Old business:

Report of the hair Committee was read. We the Committee have been unable to find historical proof whether or not Christ had long hair. We feel that the problem is much deeper than hair length for the rebellious attitude is a matter of heart, not hair. Therefore we recommend that rather than issue stipulations about hair, which would tend to confusion and division, we urge our churches to exercise deeper spiritual training which would alleviate much of the problem. Signed: James O'Dell, Charles Rhader and Loyd Crain Motion made second, voted and Carried to accept the report.

Motion made remane Change of Article III of Constitution from table second voted and Carried.

Motion made second voted and Carried to Change Article III to read: The officers of this Quarterly meeting shall be a Moderator and an Assistant Moderator, both of whom shall be ordained Ministers of this Quarterly Meeting, ~~and~~ a Clerk and Treasurer all being elected at the last session of the Calendar year.
