CONSTITUTION OF THE WEST MICHIGAN ASSOCIATION
OF
FREE WILL BAPTISTS

1. The Association, when properly convened, shall consist of a Moderator, an Assistant Moderator, Clerk, and Treasurer, who shall be to keep the Association in order, state questions fairly and take the vote thereon; to have no vote unless the Association be equally divided, in which case he shall have the deciding vote.

The duty of the Clerk and Treasurer shall be to keep a fair record of the proceedings and monies of the Association. The Assistant to the Moderator is to assist, or occupy the respective seat when vacant, or otherwise necessary. The Clerk and Treasurer are to assist one another, or occupy the respective seat when vacant, or otherwise necessary.

2. This Association shall be composed of ordained Ministers and their wives who are standing delegates along with the West Michigan Association Clerk, together with delegates duly chosen by the church of their membership in our Association.

Said Ministers shall be men of good report, within and without, of honest integrity and full of the Holy Ghost, meeting the qualifications to that of I Timothy 3. Coming under the hands, or approval of the Ordaining Council.

3. No question shall be received by this Association from any church until it has been acted upon by said church and referred to the Association. In which case the Association shall take up the matter, acting as advisory counsel to promote peace and harmony according to true discipline of Divine grace.

4. Every church in this Association shall be entitled to a representation of five elected delegates from the body; together with Ordained Ministers and their wives along with the West Michigan Association Clerk.

5. This Association shall maintain a Presbytery Board selected from the ordained Ministers; three in number, also an Executive Board consisting of five, selected from the body, whose tenure of office shall be ranging from one to five years. The Association shall select, annually, to supply the vacancies as they occur.

6. Every motion, when in order and properly sustained, shall be acted upon unless withdrawn by the mover; that is to say, to present matters for discussion, trying the merits of the same, and, if found worth and orthodox, to adopt it.

7. This association shall not exercise power so as to lord it over God's heritage so as to infringe on the internal rights of any. Maintaining the rights and privileges, and relationships to each church to that of individual members; that is to say, if a church trespass against a sister church, the church injured shall try to reclaim them by Gospel steps; whereupon, if a reconciliation cannot be effected, the said church in default shall be dropped from our counsel.

8. We agree to do all regular business by a majority of members present.

9. Any church may be admitted into this Association by a petitionary letter and delegates, if however, said church is found to be orthodox and orderly. Such admission shall be manifested by the Moderator extending the right hand of fellowship to said delegates.

10. This Association shall sit as an advisory council, to advise, if prudent, in all matters of difficulty; to ascertain the cause of nonrepresentation, to select from this body such committees deemed necessary to the functioning of the body; to exclude, or disannul any member not conforming to the Rules of Decorum, and shall report his, or their, conduct to the church of which they hold membership.

11. This Association shall not, at any time, engage in what may seem to be of a commercial nature. However, it shall be the duty of each church to provide the means for defraying current expenses of the Association.

12. This Association shall advise, or recommend the support of denominational enterprises according to the ability, or means otherwise provided, and under the jurisdiction of the local church.

13. This constitution shall not be changed, or amended, only by a three-fourths majority of Ministers, and their wives, and likewise the duly elected delegates at the regular annual setting of the Association.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association when convened shall be opened and closed by singing and prayer.
2. Only one person shall speak at a time who shall arise to his feet and address the moderator and not proceed until recognized by the moderator.
3. Each person thus speaking shall not be interrupted in speech except by the moderator, until he gets through, nor shall the moderator interrupt him unless he breaks order.
4. The person speaking shall adhere to the question and shall in no wise cast reflection on any person who may have spoken before him.
5. No person shall speak more than three times on the same subject without leave of the Association.
6. No person shall laugh or whisper in time of public speech.
7. Members shall address each other by the appellation of Brother or Brethern, or Sister.
8. No member of this Association shall absent himself when the Association is sitting in conference without leave of the moderator.
9. The name of the members of this Association shall be enrolled and called over as often as the Association think necessary.
10. No member shall speak longer than fifteen minutes at any time without leave of the moderator.
