I visited the Bible Music and Arts festival at the Loudendale Church and was very pleased as over 130 were in attendance. Our young people displayed their talent and enjoyed workshops, fun and food.

Serving Him with you

Brother Jim Varney

We had 178 churches reporting 10,902 in attendance with 33 saved. However for us to arrive at our total number in attendance we had to estimate 43 of our churches because we could not get contacts with the people responsible for reporting in their respective conferences. The estimation was done by either Sunday School orders or numbers from the previous year. We need to establish a better way to get this report done in the future.

The top 12 churches in attendance are as follows:

Church	Number in attendance	Number Saved
Parsley Bottom	287	0
Victory	253	0
MacCorkle	233	1
Chapman Memorial	224	1
Monclo	186	0
Cornerstone	180	2
Central	180	4
Heritage	178	0

WEST VIRGINIA STATE ASSOCIATION AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

To The West Virginia State Association,

We the Audit Committee, met at the Loudendale Free Will Baptist Church, on May 8, 1999, to audit the books of the WV State Association. The computer printouts, invoices, receipts, cancelled checks, check stubs, bank statements, and the balance sheets for the fiscal year of January 1, 1998 through December 31, 1998 were delivered to us by Brother Roger Tolliver.

To the best of our ability, we carefully examined all the information. We matched the checks, the check stubs, the invoices, and the receipts as well as making sure they balanced with the bank statements. We find the books of the State Association to be in proper order.

The Audit Committee also in the same manner examined the books of the Mission Board of the WV State Association of Free Will Baptist for Brother Rickie Holstein as he requested. They covered the period of time from January 1, 1998 through December 31, 1998. We find the books of the Mission Board to be in proper order.

We would like to express our appreciation to the Loudendale Church for allowing the Audit Committee to meet at the church. Also we would like to thank Brother Roger Tolliver, State Treasurer, and Brother Rickie Holstein, Mission Board Treasurer, for the fine job they are doing.

We would like to thank Brother Rickie for his help the day of the audit, without his help it could have taken much longer. His many years of being on the audit committee came very handy.

	Alva (Bud) Casto

WEST VIRGINIA
STATE ASSOCIATION OF FREE WILL BAPTIST MISSION BOARD

This year has been a great one for our board and missionary's in several ways.

Mission Board Treasurer --Rickie Holstein is doing a tremendous job. A financial report is included on the reverse side. Please send all finances to West Virginia State Mission Board P.O. Box 4624 Charleston, WV 25364. This is working out real well and is helping us serve you as well as the missionaries better.

Forth Missions Golf Tournament -- could not have been on a better day. The weather and fellowship were the best ever. It was enjoyed by all with trophies and prizes being given. This year the Golf Tournament will be on September 18, 1999 at Beaver Creek Golf Course in Beckley.

Success in the Eastern Panhandle --we are proud of the work there. Rev. Tom Blake is the pastor of Heritage Free Will Baptist Church, while Rev. Russell Wright is getting the ball rolling on the second work. He is also on itinerant to raise support. Please be in prayer and get with Russell if you can have him in your church.

Mission fund-raising --packets were sent to every church in our state with the hope of bringing our churches to a better awareness of the need to support missions.

March for Missions --was a success with the reports of souls being saved, lives recommitted to Christ, and $21,072.05 raised for missions. This is a new record.

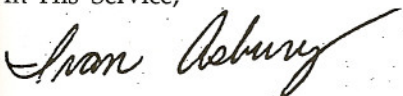

National Missions Conference --was attended by Rev. Ivan Asbury and Rev. Russell Wright. It was very informative and challenging. We heard also how and what other states are doing for missions.

Teays Valley -needs a preacher to build a Free Will Baptist Church. The Mission Board has looked at property, surveyed and talked to several preachers for this area. Pray the the Lords will be done.

The Total Income --from our state to missions was $160,962.12. With $110,107.92 going to Foreign Missions and $50,854.20 going to Home Missions.

Thank you --board members for the miles and hours of work that made this year a great one for West Virginia Free Will Baptist.

In His Service,

Ivan Asbury, Chairman

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION BOARD OF WV FREE WILL BAPTISTS

June 11 - 12, 1999

Greetings to West Virginia Free Will Baptists

We have had a good year working with you and your youth. We have had several opportunities to help individual churches as well as on a state level. Although we have been busy, we would like to do more to help your church.

June 1998 - Heritage FWBC hosted our state meeting. The Christian Education Board presented the workshops. Dean Jones, from the Youth Ministries Division of the National Association of FWB, presented a workshop about his department. Sister Alice Smith also held a workshop about her work in the Ivory Coast, West Africa.

October 1998 - Some members of our board conducted a Sunday School Seminar at Heritage FWBC. The meeting was a blessing to all.

April 1999 - Loudendale FWB Church sponsored the Annual Bible/Music/Arts Festival. This year's activities were very exciting and there were many participants. Over 150 people attended with competition in almost every category. We have several students representing our state at the National Association meeting in Atlanta, Georgia. Please give these students your support and encouragement. After the competition activities, we went to the Kanawha State Forest Park for food and fellowship.

May 1999 - Some members of our board were privileged to help with the Girls Teen Retreat that was sponsored by the WNAC.

We have enjoyed our service to you and we look forward to continue improvement.

In His Service,

The Christian Education Board

June 11, 1999

Once again, the women of West Virginia have planned and prepared a program to involve themselves in the work of Christ. During the past year, we have met together in three major conferences and sponsored a retreat for teen girls:

Fall Retreat - Camp Virgil Tate was the gathering site of 184 women on Sept 11-12, 1998. The theme of the meeting was "People Need the Lord." Sis. Alice Smith shared about the burden of evangelism and her personal call to missions. The spirit moved in a mighty way.

Spring Luncheon - The Prince of Peace FWB Church, (Huntington, WV) was the meeting spot on April 17, 1999. There were 86 ladies registered in attendance that day. A sweet spirit settled over the ladies as Sister Martha Stone of Harvest Child Care Ministries of Duffield, VA expanded the theme, "Jesus, the Light of the World."

State Convention - Our annual convention was hosted by the Bethel FWB Church at MacArthur, WV on May 15, 1999. There were 46 ladies in attendance. The morning session consisted of prayer and praise. Sister Laraine Tolliver challenged us with the theme, "Let's All shine in '99." The afternoon consisted of a regular business session and election of officers.

State Teen Girls Retreat - The women in WV sponsored a retreat for teen girls ages 12-18 at Mt. Tabor/Beckley Conference Center on May 21-22, 1999. Sister Barbara Evans of Nashville, TN spoke to the girls. Their theme was "Girls on the Go." There were 35 that attended. There was one saved and several rededications.

SPECIAL MISSIONS PROJECTS ADOPTED FOR 1998-1999

*We raised $305.00 at the 1998 Fall Retreat for the Children's Ministry run by Jim and Shirley Combs in Brazil.

*We supplied quite a load of baby gowns, layette sets, cloth diapers, blankets and miscellaneous baby supplies for Sis. Alice Smith to take back to new mothers in Ivory Coast.

*Boxes and boxes of tylenol, aspirin, antacids and vitamins were brought for Sis. Alice Smith to take to Ivory Coast. Missionaries minister to both body and soul!

*Many ladies brought material and sewing supplies to provide clothing for Sis. Alice Smith. Her suitcase is filled to overflowing!

*Sis. Martha Stone's extended van couldn't hold even a toothpick after being filled with paper plates, paper cups, paper towels, napkins, toilet paper, saran wrap and aluminum foil collected at the Spring Luncheon for Harvest Child Care Ministries. Each lady made an offering of $5.00 which was divided between Harvest and the Combs' Children's Ministry in Brazil. Both ministries received over $200.00.

MISSIONS PROJECTS ADOPTED FOR THE COMING YEAR

*A money tree will be covered for the the Combs' Child Care Ministry in Brazil again. The home there houses over 100 children.

*The ladies will be collecting new and good used baby clothes, blankets, diapers, lotions, etc. as well as used maternity clothes for Birthright of Beckley. This program promotes and enforces a pro-life choice of the mother. It will provide counseling for the mother-to-be and will arrange housing and adoption procedures if necessary.

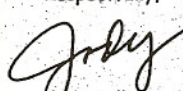

The women in West Virginia are wonderful givers. They have never failed to meet a challenge set before them. Their eyes are open to the world around them and take every opportunity to share the love of God with others around them. Last year alone, the women in West Virginia gave $3,429.72 to missions. I'm sure others gave directly to the National Missions departments that we are not aware of...but God has surely blessed each of those who gave.

I have been encouraged by the enthusiasm of the women in West Virginia during my first term as President. Their willingness to serve wherever needed is impressive. It is very unusual to have women volunteer a year in advance to help prepare for our activities - but I've experienced this many times over. "I'll do anything you want me to do." What a sign of enthusiasm and support!

Another area to be encouraged by is attendance. Attendance is increasing with every event. The 1998 retreat was possibly a record attendance with 186 ladies there. This year, we're preparing for 225! Even if we increase by only 5 or 10, it's still an increase and a sure sign that the women are excited by what's happening in auxiliary work.

Please pray for our new slate of officers newly elected in May. We truly want to minister to the women of West Virginia and to enlist those who are not currently active in our work. If we can assist the ladies in your church, please let us know. We are "colaborers together with God." (I Corinthians 3:9)

Respectfully,

Jody Sullivan
State President

Financial

Information on the State Publication Board is contained in the State Financial Report.

Publishing Schedule

Since last year's State Association, the board has met it's obligation to publish the state newsletter bi-monthly. Though on occasion the publish date slipped to a small degree, six issues have gone to press during the year. In the coming year, and with the help and growing participation of our state's churches, we expect to again meet our obligation.

Size and Scope of the Newsletter

We are thankful that more and more churches and conferences are becoming involved. We began with a four page document, and through the valuable contributions of our people, the newsletter has doubled in size to eight pages. The scope has also expanded to include such items as Co-Op giving (to encourage churches to give through their State Association), "Churches Without Pastors", and "Pastors Looking for Churches".

Initiatives

Reaching Out for Information - An integral part of our publishing cycle is sending out report forms along with self addressed envelopes to State Officers, State Board Chairmen, Conference Executive Board members, auxiliaries, and National Officials: we plan to continue this effort throughout the coming year. Though the response is improving, we still do not receive a reply from many of those to whom the report forms are sent. We can't stress it enough: the newsletter will only be as good as we West Virginia Free Will Baptists make it. As editors, we can only work with what we are provided and it is our sincere desire to publish your news whether you are a State Official, pastor, church official, or layman. Also, if you know of someone who should be on our list to receive a report form, but is not, please let us know.

Web Initiative - We also publish the state newsletter on the Internet. The website(s) contains not only the newsletter, but information on our state and national missionaries, state missions work, history of West Virginia Free Will Baptists, church covenant, and links to West Virginia Free Will Baptist Churches that have webpages. It is our goal for the coming year to continue this effort and expand it to include other important State Association information and special events. email - hfwb@intrepid.net, URL for newsletter: <http://intrepid.net/~nethe/> or <http://geocities.com/heartland/farm/2400/>.

It is the desire of our heart to see our churches grow in unity and fellowship. It is through sharing our victories, concerns, sorrows, and burdens that we are encouraged and drawn together. The driving motive behind the efforts of the Publication Board is simply to serve our brothers and sisters in the Lord, and above all else, glorify the Lord Jesus Christ. May God richly bless you with His evident presence in your lives and churches, and may the Holy Fire of revival burn in our midst.

Thank you...

Thank you for your faithful support. West Virginia gave $9,247.87 to help underwrite Bible-based education of some of God's finest young people. (This amount includes gifts received by the Bible College in 1998.)

Accreditation...

Free Will Baptist Bible College has been an accredited member of the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges since 1958. We received regional accreditation through the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December 1996. (Brochures are available explaining the purpose and benefits our students will receive as a result of this additional accreditation.)

Relocation...

The Relocation Campaign was formally launched on Tuesday, March 10, 1998. We have just completed our first year and are ahead of schedule. The campaign will be accomplished in three phases, concluding on May 31, 2001. Commitments lasting up to five years will be sought to help underwrite construction of the new campus.

Christian Service...

Students worked in Christian service this past semester performing various ministries including: musical numbers 4,731, preaching 792 times, teaching 1,439 classes, distributed 3,997 tracts and dealt with 1,875 people about their spiritual needs. Students witnessed 112 decisions for Christ.

Paul Kettelman Memorial Christmas Drive...

December is designated as Free Will Baptist Bible College month through The Together Way plan. Please do something special to help our Foreign Missions Department in April, our Rest of the Family ministries in September, our Home Mission's "Benjamin Randall Day" in November, and Free Will Baptist Bible College in December.
