OBITUARY OF ELD. J. P. MOZINGO.

It is with sadness that we attempt to chronicle the death of our much beloved and highly esteemed brother J. P. Mazingo, who departed this life Sept. 20, 1896. He was born Dec. 20, 1847; joined the church Sept. 1879.

On Aug. 5, 1882, he was elected Ruling Elder in his church. He was licensed to preach Nov. 1st 1884. His ordination took place Nov. 7, 1886.

Bro. Mazingo was a faithful member of the Free will Baptist church until his death.

As a minister he was ever loyal to his master; ever going forth and holding out the precious promises of God to the children of men and pointing sinners to the Lamb that taketh away the sin of the world.

His heart was so filled with holy zeal, that he was ever ready when his master called him, to go and work in his vineyard, to say, "Here am I Lord, what will thou have me to do?"

Our good brother was instrumental in the hands of God, in doing great and lasting good in his holy name; and though his seat is vacant, to be filled no more by him on earth; yet, his influence lives on and on; and eternity alone will tell the good accomplished by our brother.

And to-day as we look upon the mound, under which he his remains we can but say, "He is not dead but sleepeth."
