SKETCH OF ELD. J. R. WATSON.

The subject of this sketch was born in the western part of Wilson county, July 28th, 1863. Was a son of Wm. and Pennie Watson and one among several children a number of whom are yet living in and around Kenly. On the 14th of February he was married to Miss Martha E. Edgerton. To them were born six children which survive him. Bro. Watson gave his heart to God in the year 1881 joining the church at Holly Springs. Was licensed and ordained to the ministry in 1886. He was a quiet farmer and liked a peaceable retired life for the most part. Was honored and loved by those who knew him. He was instrumental in bringing many to Christ and surely a bright crown is his in the world beyond the skies in the year 1912 on October 2nd, he was called from labor to reward. May God comfort the bereft family and may we all meet him in the happy land beyond.

By Committee.

SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF ELDER P. T. LUCAS.

The subject of this sketch was born near Lucama, Wilson county, on the 8th day of September, 1854, and died near place of his birth on the 2nd day of July, 1912, making his stay on earth near 58 years; was the son of Silas and Martha Lucas of well known repute. He leaves one sister and five brothers. He was one of the charter members of Little Rock church and united under the preaching of Elder Daniel Davis in 1872. He was licensed to preach Aug. 17th, 1877, and was ordained to the ministry Aug. 30th, 1884, at Holy Springs church, Johnston county, the presbytery being Elders Daniel Davis, J. H. Worley, and B. H. Boykin. He was married in January, 1877 to Miss Frances Newsome. To them were born twelve children: Mary Etta, Martha Ellen, Minnie Effie, Lou Emma, Malachi Daniel, Loutoria, John Patrick, Cora Elizabeth, Loyd Thomas, Sadie Frances, Silas Redding and Earnest Carr. Lou Emma died in infancy and Malachi Daniel died after being married some time. The married children are Mrs. Sidney Rentfrow, Mrs. J. J. Morris, Mrs. A. M. Branch and John P. Lucas.

Elder Lucas was sick twelve months or more prior to his death and was confined to his bed four months. His remains were laid to rest in the Lucas burying ground on July 3rd. Funeral services were conducted by Elders L. T. Phillips and G. W. Ferrell. He was buried with the honors of the Masonic order of which he was an honored member. He preached his last sermon at Marsh Swamp church on the first Sunday in March, 1912.

Truly Elder Lucas was one of God's noblemen. He grew up a dutiful and worthy son. In his domestic life he was a devoted husband and loving father. He provided well for his household and through toil and honest effort accumulated a good living and left his family in good circumstances. Above all he was devoted to the work of his heavenly Father and has left a glorious heritage in a life full of good works. He went far and near to carry the good news of salvation, and when he reached the heavenly throne there must have been many stars to adorn his worthy crown. He had great faith in God and many were born into the kingdom under his ministry. May we all meet him in the celestial land and with him and his enjoy the rich felicities of heaven.

By Committee.
