Prof. J. E. Sawyer of the Seminary at Ayden, made a strong plea for the education of the children of North Carolina, stating that her children were her greatest asset. He showed how our state had progressed during the last decade, due primarily to the great strides that had been made along the line of education. We are as a state too poor not to educate. What is true of North Carolina as a state is true of the Free Will Baptist as a denomination. Did not blame other denominations for being loyal to their denominational schools. As they are true to theirs and profit thereby, let us be wise and forget not our own interests.

On motion we make D. B. Sasser agent for our Seminary, to work for same during the coming year. That he get receipts for all monies paid in and report the same and also that he employ any help that he may see fit. That he be allowed $1.50 per day and his expenses, same to be paid out of any funds collected for the above named purpose.

The following resolution by Elder J. C. Griffin was adopted:

RESOLUTION AS TO MINISTERIAL REPORTS.

—Resolved, That this Conference require every minister to bring a written report of the work that is under his care, and all other religious work done by said minister in and out of this Conference, stating how many sermons preached, number of visits paid to the sick, how much finance raised for missions, education, and all religious purposes. Also the amount he has received for his services, and the amount expended out of his personal money.

Reports on Temperance, Sunday Schools, Missions, and the Ministerial Report were acted upon. (See reports of Committees.)

Conference called off one hour for dinner.

SATURDAY EVENING.—On motion, the funds that have been sent from each union for disabled ministers, be returned to the union from which they came. (The motion was lost.)

OBITUARY

Eld. G. C. Mills was in every respect beloved by every one who knew him. He first joined the M. B. Church, but afterward became a member of Rock Spring F. W. B. Church in Wake county. He joined under the preaching of Elds. T. J. D. Pate and Daniel Davis. Soon after joining he made known his desire to preach the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. He was granted license to exercise his gifts and he was so determined and devoted to the cause, his church saw fit to have him ordained to the full work. He was faithful and true to the cause and contended for the faith once delivered to the saints. He lived to be very old, the writer does not remember his exact age. In his last days he did but little preaching on account of bad health. His life he lived and practiced was noble, leaving a great consolation to those left behind. No doubt he will be missed in the community where he lived. May those of his friends and loved ones take pattern after this old sainted father. He gave assurances to those who visited him that he was reconciled to the will of Him who doeth all things well. ELDERS B. W. TIPPETT AND W. E. ANDERSON, Committee.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF ELDER J. W. WOOD

Eld. J. W. Wood was born June 11, 1882. He was married January 3, 1904. Joined the Free Will Baptist church at Saints Delight, Franklin county in September, 1904. Was licensed to preach the Gospel on the 14th of October, 1912. He was ordained at the State Convention at Bailey, N. C., on the 18th day of September, 1913 by Elds. J. W. Valentine, J. E. Davis and B. W. Tippet. Brother Wood died in John Hopkins hospital on the 12th day of February, 1914. His disease was a stone in the bladder and he died from the effects of an operation to have the stone removed. His stay on earth was 31 years, 8 months and one day. He leaves a good wife and five small children. We desire to commend his widow and children to the charity of the Free Will Baptist denomination at large. God help us all to aid their mother in taking care of the little ones and help us to spread a mantle of charity over the errors of our brother and to imitate his every virtue, that we may say when life is over, "Return thou unto thy rest, O my soul, for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee."
