Report of Temperance Committee

1. We suggest that each Sunday School through its Superintendent and teachers stress the Temperance lesson each quarter in such a way as to build sentiment against intemperance in our youth.

2. Believing as we do that temperate conduct is the result of heart attitudes, we suggest that all pastors preach, teach and otherwise instruct their people from the Bible concerning our relationships to the Lord's Day, the Civil Government of our Country, etc.

3. We recommend that a committee be appointed to confer with the Trustees of the Anna Phillips Loan Fund with regard to enlarging the fund and making it a subsidiary of the North Carolina State Convention. Report of Auxiliary Committee

Greetings to the Western Conference of Free Will Baptist of North Carolina from the Woman's Auxiliary Convention of said Conference:

We feel very proud to report that at least one-half of the churches of the Eastern Conference, 26 of the 52, have Woman's Auxiliaries who report regularly to the Woman's Convention. We have heard of other churches having Auxiliaries in their local churches, but do not make their reports or send delegates to our Convention. We hope that in the next Convention we will be able to welcome many of these local church Woman's Auxiliaries, to our Convention body. Pastors, we plead to you to lend your encouragement toward this goal.

The women of this Convention are faithful in the support of the Church and its entire program. With a little better than 600 Auxiliary members in this Western Conference, we know that the cause of our Lord and Church are much stronger through the efforts of these organized women. We invite the churches who do not have Women's Auxiliaries to catch the spirit of this group and organize in the near future.

We would like to give special mention to the fact, also, that almost 100% of the Woman's Auxiliaries sponsor Daily Vacation Bible Schools in their local churches, and many of these organizations sponsor Youth AUXILIARIES. From the influence of these two features of the Women's Auxiliaries we find many of our youth turning to Christ and giving and preparing their lives for full time Christian work. Thanks for these churches who have caught the vision of what it will mean to the church of tomorrow to train our youth today. Pastors, we beg for your continued prayers and cooperation in training and inspiring our youth for Tomorrow's Church.

From the reports of our local Auxiliary treasurers we are happy to see that Missions' both home and foreign, have not been neglected, but instead have been faithfully supported. Many of you know, personally, of the many dollars given by our women to send the gospel to those who have never heard.

Certainly, all of you know, how dear the Orphanage is to the hearts of our women. Most, if not all, of our Auxiliaries, clothe a child at the Orphanage, besides the many other phases of the work we help to sponsor.

And Cragmont, too, along with Superannuation and Church Finance have had our faithful support. Woman's Conference each year has proven, beyond a doubt, what our women think of our Assembly at Cragmont. We thank the Lord for it.

We desire your prayers that we may be even more zealous in promoting our Lord's work through our Church in this next year.

Respectfully submitted.

Mrs. Bagley Morris

Mrs. Luther Kirby

Mrs. S. H. Styron
